NICARAGUA was visited on the 16th instant by an earthquake, which was particularly severe at Leon. At Granada alarming noises were heard about "Munotombo," an extinct volcano in the neighborhood.

A BERLIN correspondent says that "if you were to hear the Prussians talk you would think them all Americans in their progression and valor, and like our own countrymen they believe themselves invincible."

A NEW organization has been started in England, called the "Free Church of England." It is modeled after the plan of the Episcopal Church in the United States, and claims to have for its special object a move against Romanism and Ritualism, which it regards as of very near kin.

A COMMITTEE has been formed at Constantinople, under the presidency of Count von Kayserling, the North-German Ambassador, for the purpose of receiving and distributing money and other necessaries, cent in aid of the Germans and Swiss, have lost their property by the late fire at Pera.

THE Comercio, a paper which has been started in San Jose, Costa Rica, to represent commercial interests, speaks of the arrival of an agent of an English company in that city for the purpose of treating with the government for the construction of an interoceanic railroad across the Republic.

THE Norwegian fisheries are decreasing. They now employ 22,492 men. The number of cod taken in 1869 was 25,700,000, of which 12,000,000 were salted and prepared as clip fish, or baccalan, and about 12,800,000 hung up to dry as round-fish. The remaining 900,000 were cured for home consumption.

INTELLIGENCE from St. Petersburg announces the death in that city of M. Bernadaki, the wealthy father-in-law of Baron de Talleyrand-Perigord, formerly French Ambassador in Russia. He leaves about thirty millions of francs, obtained, it is said, by farming from the Russian Government the brandy monopoly.

A FRENCH savant has invented a method of preserving paleontological specimens. All fossil bones, upon being exposed to the air, are apt to fall away into dust. To prevent this, it is proposed to form over them a solution of silicate of potash. The liquid is absorbed immediately, and thoroughly hardens the objects.

THE great extension of the flax trade of late years in Russia may be attributed to the enormous rise in price, consequent upon the scarcity of cotton there. Prices of flax have latterly been to the peasant as much as three times what they were fifteen years ago—the peasant, therefore, sow every available acre with flax.

A DISPATCH from Paris says the strike in Mulhouse has extended to all classes of workmen. Even the bakers have ceased work, and at least twenty thousand men are now idle. Notwithsanding this unusual suspension of labor, good order has been preserved, and neither the police nor the soldiers have been called upon to interfere.

AFTER a sermon preached by a Paris priest in favor of Ireland, a woman passed through the assembly with an alms bag. The sermon had been very eloquent, the emotions excited by it were universal, and gifts rained into the bag. A workman cast in his watch, saying aloud, "One need not know the time of day when a people is dying of hunger."

THE Manchester Guardian of July 2nd says: A Jew—and a Roumanian Jew to boot—has received his exequator as United States Consul at Bucharest. This is not much to be thankful for, but, never the less, it will be some consolation to the unfortunate Hebrews of the principalities to find one of their race and faith stepping into such a position.

DON FRANCIS OF ASSISI, the ex-husband of the ex-Queen of Spain, is now leading the life of a bachelor in Paris, having rented only three rooms in a house on the Rue Ecuries d'Artois. M. DE KONTSKI, the famous Russian violinist, and his daughter Wanda, the pianist, have had the honor of playing before the Sultan. WE are promised another addition to the famous literary puzzle known as the "Junius controversy." The London Athenæum states that there will shortly be given to the world certain evidence respecting the authorship of the Junius letters, which the descendants of Sir Philip Francis have hitherto withheld from publication at the instigation of prudential motives.

WHILE England and America are contending that sons of theirs respectively discovered the practice of anæsthesia for surgical operations, we find that it was adopted many hundred years ago. We are assured that a Chinese physician, named Hoa-tho, who lived between the 220th and 230th year of our era, gave to his patients a preparation of hemp by which they became insensible.

THE works of the Talcahuano and Chilian Railway, and the branch line from Llaillai to San Felipe are proceeding very satisfactorily. The arrival of the loan raised in England for the construction of the former line, has enabled the Governments to provide for the requirements of the latter, without recourse to the issue of exchequer bonds as authorized by the law of the 7th of January, 1869.

A NICARAGUAN agriculturist it is reported, has discovered a method of extracting an excellent black dye from the plant commonly known as "sacastinta." The plant is said to offer many advantages for successful cultivation, compared with the indigo, amongst which may be mentioned that it is more easily and cheaply raised, and that it produces a much larger quantity of dye, in proportion, than does the indigo plant.

GREAT excitement prevails at Cobija, Bolivia, owing to the discovery of some rich silver mines distant about five leagues from the little settlement of Calama, about twenty-five leagues away from the seaboard. The place where these reputed fabulously rich veins of silver exist is called Sierra del Limon Verde. The prefecture has already issued above one hundred and fifty mining licenses, and nothing else is talked about but starting off to the mines.

THE North German Correspondent says: Orders have been given for the construction of a new iron-clad frigate with four pieces of 10-inch rifled cannon in two revolving turrets, and three rifled 24 pounders, two at the bows and one at the stern. She is to be furnished with machines of 900 nominal horse power, and will draw 24 feet of water. After the completion of the Ariadne in the Dantzic dock-yard, a new corvette will be laid down as a companion ship to the latter. The iron-clad frigate is to be called the Boroussia, and the new corvette the Louisa.

MLLE. AROTE, the heroine of a new Parisian novel, is an immaterial being evoked from all sorts of queer gases by the combined science of two alchemists. She is an infernal spirit. Her eyes shed electrical lightning, she indulges in devilish sneers, she has at command all the powers of the supernatural world, and the work of her life is to bring evil upon all who approach her—upon all who love her. The romance is intended expressly for summer reading, as it makes everybody's blood run cold, and sends little diabolical shivers careering about.

THE Tcheques are at this moment making great efforts to reconcile themselves with the Germans established in Bohemia, and are convoking numerous meetings with the object of persuading the latter that they also should consider themselves as citizens of the same kingdom, and seek to obtain the recognition of its public rights. These attempts have up to the present time been completely ineffectual. The Bohemian Germans persist in their incredulity with regard to the rights of the crown of St. Wenceslas, and do not even attend the meetings to which they are invited.

MR. MEIGGS, the great railroad contractor has forwarded to Government the report, plans and estimated cost of the line from Tacna to the frontiers of Bolivia and also for that from Ilo to Moquehua. The Government has given notice that tenders will be received up to the 7th of July, for the construction of the above lines, and that the most convenient will be accepted, in view of the guarantee and security tendered for the speedy and certain construction of said lines. Orders have been issued for the purpose of establishing another line which, starting from Jauja, may reach the city of Ayacucho, and from the latter be extended to Ica.

THE Amalgamated Society of Engineers has been frequently quoted as the most powerful of trades unions existing in England, or, possibly, in any other part of the world. According to a late statement in the Cotemporary Review, by Mr. George Potter, it comprises more than 33,000 members. Its income is nearly £86,000 ($415,000 gold.) "During the nineteen years of its existence, it has paid to members out of work £485,824; to sick members, £179,165; for accidents and funerals, £73,450; in superannuations, £53,327; in benevolent grants and assistance to other trades, £25,302; making in all the princely sum of £817,068 ($4,085,340 gold,) and leaving a balance in hand of £76,176."

A CLERK who was discharged from the British Admiralty for misconduct in 1861, and of course without a pension, lately wrote to the department, as if still in office, offering to accept a commutation of pension. Apparently no inquiry was made by the officials to whom the application was addressed. They seem to have assumed implicitly that the pension was really due, and to have proceeded in the ordinary course with the calculations for commuting it. The result was that on the 14th of June, 1870, the clerk received £2000 from the admiralty for consenting to retire from a service from which he had been dismissed in disgrace nine years before, and to accept a commutation of a pension to which he had no title whatever. The clerk started at once on a visit to the United States.

A MOST revolting and almost inexplicable crime is reported from the Rhenish factory town of Gladdbach, in Germany. A young factory hand met a handsome boy nine years of age, who had just taken dinner to his father, in the vicinity of the factory. By some means or other he induced the little fellow to accompany him to a neighboring field, where the tall grain stalks concealed them effectually from all eyes, and then threw him on the ground and struck him repeatedly on the head with his shoe till the boy lost consciousness. Now he bared his belly and ripped it open, so that the entrails gushed forth. Thinking his victim dead, he went away. Some schoolboys going by chance through the field, found the poor child in this horrible condition, and they giving the alarm, it was at once transported to the hospital. There he was laid in a most deplorable state, the skull is crushed, the neck showing the traces of the fingers of the monster as he tried to strangle the boy, and the belly bearing a wound nine inches in length. The inhuman wretch, who had been designated by the mutilated child, was working quietly in the factory when he was araested, and did not deny the deed, although he was unable to explain what had induced him to commit it. He remained perfectly calm on being confronted with his victim, and seemed reasonable and sane.

THE Cincinnati Commercial says Colonel Griffin Halstead read the account of his death and burial in yesterday's Gazette at about the time the Enquirer had announced for the inquest, and was annoyed. IT is said that immediately after the recent earthquake, in the middle of the road, on Chalybeate Mountain, about twenty-five miles from Arkadelphia, Arkansas, where it was almost as hard as a rock before, there appeared a quagmire, and several persons attempting to ride over it before being acquainted with its character, had their horses to mire so that they had to be pried out. THE annual ceremonies of the believers in the African superstition of voudouism and the celebration of the Fetish rites generally, were duly observed in Louisiana on St. John's Day, at a secluded spot on the shore of Lake Ponchartrain, where numerous shanties were constructed, with a principal one in the centre, under cover of which the voudou orgies were performed. The rites this year were not characterized by such extravagant and cruel performances as on former occasions.

THE Cincinnati Commercial has a free trade correspondent, signing himself D. P. It is singular, but we cannot recall a single free trade newspaper correspondent who does not as soon as he adopts that line, descend at once to vile personal abuse and a vulgar style. This D. P. assails General Farnsworth and Judge Kelley, in the case of the latter gentleman going back thirty years to accuse him of making a pro-slavery speech and using freely, under the shield of the anonymous, such aspersions as would in the days of the duello have insured D. P.'s instantaneous flight to a place of safety.

AN Austrian journal says that the dismissal of Father Augustine Theiner, the keeper of the privy archives of the Vatican, from his post, has caused much talk in Rome. He was the author of the Life of Clement XIV., a book written by order of Pius IX., at the period when the present Pope was opposed to the Jesuits. The work was directed against the Order, who have accordingly long viewed its writer with dislike. The cause of Father Theiner's removal is said to be the fact of his having furnished the German bishops with some documents from the Papal archives, which were not calculated to support the theory of the infallibility of the Pope.

The Iron Moulders' Union on Coolie Labor.

AT the meeting of the Iron Moulders' Union, on Wednesday, at Philadelphia, the Committee on Coolie Labor, W. C. Bladley, No. 3, Chairman, presented the following report: Whereas there has of late years arisen an emigration of a new, and so far as our country is concerned of an unprecedented kind and intended, as we believe, to reduce to poverty and barbarism the working men of this country by introducing a system of labor utterly servile and degrading, and hitherto unknown in this country, and whereas it is important in view of recent events that an expression of opinion should be had from our organization relative to the question of coolie labor, it is therefore resolved, That the International Union of Iron Moulders, in convention assembled, hereby enter their most earnest protest against the further introduction of Coolie labor into this country, and present a portion of the reasons which actuate them in so doing.

The introduction of coolie labor into this country is calculated to reduce the wages of mechanics and laboring men to a rate of compensation upon which no American working man can possibly subsist. 2d. It will still further lower the social status of those who are now socially low enough. 3d. It will lead to a state of pauperism, dependence and crime. 4th. It will imperil the safety of our republican institutions. 5th. It will inevitably degrade the morals of all those with whom these Chinese serfs are brought into contact, and the children not only of the poor, but of the rich as well, cannot avoid being contaminated by their customs and example. 6th. It will discourage emigration to our shores of the hardy and virtuous sons of toil, who have aided in building up our country, and elevating her to a proud position among the nations of the earth. 7th. It will add to our population a class of people who do not desire citizenship, and who do not intend to remain permanently in our midst, and who cannot, therefore, in any sense be considered as an addition to the wealth and prosperity of our country. 8th. It will virtually and to all intents and purposes re-establish the slave trade in our midst, with all its attendant horrors. 9th. It will have the effect of destroying, finally, every privilege the negro has gained by the war, and by subsequent Congressional enactments, and of placing him in a worse condition than he was in before the war, because the importation of Coolies into the country will so cheapen the price of labor as to entirely deprive the negro of his means of livelihood, and thereby take from him every advantage that he might otherwise gain from citizenship and suffrage.

Resolved, That, believing as we do that all these and many more evils will result from this horrible traffic, and feeling deeply the necessity of every trade organization taking action in the matter, we do hereby pledge ourselves to unite with any other organizations in any lawful and honorable effort to check and suppress this inhuman traffic.

Resolved, That we are not opposed to voluntary emigration, but will extend the hand of welcome to the emigrant from every clime, who comes to share the privileges and benefits conferred upon us by our institutions.

The clause referring to the negroe's privileges and coolie labor upon them was referred back to the committee for amendment. The remaining portions of the report were unanimously adopted.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Text of the War Declaration.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANCE.

GREAT AGITATION—WAR FEVER FURIOUS.

PARIS, July 15—Noon.—There is great agitation here, and many demonstrations in favor of war were made by the people during the night. Crowds of students and others paraded the streets and boulevards shouting "vive war, down with Prussia," &c. Some persons who protested were hissed and insulted. The police did not interfere. The crowd stopped at the Prussian embassy and shouted insultingly. It is asserted that the Prussian Embassador leaves Paris to-day.

CABINET DISSENSIONS.

The dissensions in the French Cabinet have ended in unanimity on the question of war. The Emperor will hold a permanent council of his Marshals and Ministers at the Tuilleries.

It is reported on the best authority that an angry interview occurred yesterday between the Emperor and Prime Minister Ollivier, growing out of the latter's known disposition for peace. The Emperor violently denounced Ollivier's efforts in this direction.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS.

Movements of troops toward the Rhine frontier are incessant. Eastern France is absolutely alive with soldiers. Troops which have hitherto garrisoned Paris have gone, and raw levies are slowly replacing them. Ambulances and caissons throng the streets of the city on their route to the East. The preparations at the different naval stations are on a similarly large scale.

Rentes declined to 65. Stocks all lower. United States bonds declined in London.

WAR FINALLY DECLARED.

3 P. M.—The Corps Legislatif declared war against Prussia at ten minutes before two to-day.

The Constitutionnel, at noon, says: In consequence of the insult to Bennedetti, France accepts the war which Prussia offers.

PROTRACTED MINISTERIAL COUNCIL.

After the Council at the Tuilleries the Ministers accompanied the Emperor to St. Cloud last night, where the Council was resumed and lasted far into the night.

It is asserted that Baron Werther was on the point of starting again for Ems yesterday, when a Prussian messenger arrived here with a counter order.

The Gaulois says the Minister of Austria to Berlin is now in Paris and had an interview with the Emperor.

VICTORIA APPEALS FOR PEACE.

It is reported the Emperor received a dispatch from Queen Victoria this morning, making a last appeal for peace, and a similar dispatch was also sent to the King of Prussia.

PROCLAMATION BY NAPOLEON.

It is said a proclamation, signed by Napoleon, is being prepared for distribution throughout the German States as soon as the French troops cross the frontier. It assures the German people that France is at war against Prussia, not against Germany, and with no idea of conquest. An enormous number of copies are already printed.

THE EXCITEMENT—NO OPPOSITION TO THE WAR—TROOPS MOVING.

Evening.—The excitement is very great. There is no opposition to war manifested by any class.

Rentes advanced to 66 francs.

Great bodies of troops were put in motion last night for the frontier, and the Emperor will soon take the field in person.

FULL TEXT OF THE WAR PROCLAMATION BY FRANCE.

The following is the text of the declaration made by Duke De Grammont before the Senate to-day:

Messieurs: The manner in which the country received our declaration of the 6th of July led us to commence negotiations with Prussia to secure her recognition of our grievances. We did not treat with Spain, whose independence we have no wish to trammel; nor with the Prince of Hohenzollern, whom we consider to be under the shadow of the King; nor have we advanced any other grievance than the candidacy of the Prince for the Spanish throne. The Prussian Minister of Foreign Affairs opposed to us a determination to receive no representation, pretending to ignore the affair. We then addressed ourselves to the King, who maintained that he was a stranger to the affair, and that he could not interfere, except as the head of the family, but he avowed that he had instructed Bismarck. We could not accept that answer and we demanded that the King should influence the Prince of Hohenzollern. Desistance in the project came from the quarter whence it was least expected.

We then demanded that the King should give a promise for the future. This moderate demand, made in moderate terms, we declared to be without any reservation. The King declined to say that he would refuse in the future to interfere with the candidature, and he refused to authorize us to give to you the declaration that he would in future oppose the candidature. He declared that he reserved to himself the right to consider the circumstances.

Even after this refusal we did not break off the negotiations, but adjourned our operations until this date. Yesterday we were apprised that the King of Prussia had notified our Embassador that he would no longer receive him, and to render the rupture more obvious he gave notice of his action to the Cabinets of Europe at the same time he announced that we then might take leave, and that the arming of Prussia had commenced. On our part we yesterday called out the reserve and we have taken such other measures as the interests of the country demanded.

A copy of this declaration has been presented to the Corps Legislatiff by the Keeper of Seals. The Government ask a vote of supplies and the call to arms of all classes owing military services.

The Corps Legislatiff has voted the extreme demands of the Government, the Left voting in the negative.

THE REGICIDE CONSPIRATORS.

PARIS, July 15.—The persons awaiting trial on a charge of conspiracy against the State and Emperor, have been transferred to Blois, where the high Court of Justice will open on Monday, unless orders are issued to the contrary.

PRUSSIA.

WITHDRAWAL OF THE FRENCH MINISTER.

BERLIN, July 15.—The North German Gazette has a dispatch from Ems to-day, giving particulars of the withdrawal of Benedetti. It appears that he accosted the King while the latter was drinking water, demanding peremptorily his intentions on the pending imbroglio. He was therefore dismissed immediately.

The same paper says there is much activity at Prussian ports, which are being put in a state of defence. Fourteen iron-clads and frigates are ready to start from Brest and Cherbourg.

HOSTILITIES COMMENCED.

3 P. M.—Hostilities have already begun.

CIRCULAR FROM BISMARCK.

Count Bismarck has issued a circular, which has been telegraphed in all directions, notifying German vessels to hasten to ports of the Sheilt. The notification of course applies to all ocean steamers belonging to German ports.

UNLIMITED CREDIT FOR NATIONAL DEFENCE.

BERLIN, July 15.—The Bundesiath of the North German Confederation met here to-day. The Prussian Diet is already in session. The chiefs of all parties assure the King of the approval of his dignified and energetic attitude. Resolutions were adopted according unlimited credit for national defence.

GREAT BRITAIN.

PROTEST BY THE GREAT POWERS.

LONDON, July 15, 3 A. M.—It is reported that the European powers will unite in a protest against the implacability of Prussia.

The Times thinks that unless the neutrals can intervene, the prospect of peace was never less favorable.

The press of this city generally unite in denouncing what they term the deliberate provocations of France against Prussia.

POSITION OF OTHER POWERS.

Mr. Disraeli in the Commons asked the government for an expression of opinion on the Continental disturbances. He could not believe that in the nineteenth century a war of succession possible, in view of our elevated tendencies and wide sympathies. Many causes of jealousy, discontent and distrust had risen between two powers and they were now brought to a precipitate division.

Mr. Gladstone denied there was any sufficient ground for trouble, and added the causes were unfit for discussion.

Holland remains neutral. The belligerents are to respect neutrality, yet troops are rapidly concentrating at Antwerp and other strategic points. The specie and bullion of the Bank of Antwerp have been removed to the citadel. Paper money is to be used by Holland.

Austria continues to profess neutrality in quarrel between Prussia and France, but it is said she will abandon it if a third power should intervene.

At St. Petersburg there is a strong feeling on the part of the Russian Government against France. It is believed now that the Emperor Napoleon is bent on an aggressive war to destroy the balance of power in Europe, and by seizing an overmastering position will force the restoration of the Bourbons on the throne of Spain by arms.

The Bavarian Government announces that it will remain neutral, but the King and his people would not separate themselves from the rest of Germany.

INTERVENTION INEFFECTUAL.

The intervention of the Great Powers for peace was ineffectual. Napoleon will announce to-day the rupture of relations between France and Prussia and the declaration of war.

BASIS OF THE DECLARATION OF WAR.

The French declaration of war is based on the following causes:

First—The insult offered at Ems to Count Benedetti, and its approval by the Prussian Government.

Second—The refusal of the King of Prussia to compel the withdrawal of Prince Leopold's name as a candidate for the Spanish throne.

Third—The fact that the King persisted in giving the Prince liberty to accept the crown.

The declaration continues: "The extra constitutional changes in Prussia awaken the slumbering recollections of 1814. Let us cross the Rhine and avenge the insults of Prussia."

The excitement in Paris is intense.

THE POWERS DID REMONSTRATE.

VIENNA, July 15.—The governments of Austria, England, Italy and Russia are known to have presented at Paris urgent remonstrances against war.

PRUSSIA THE AGGRESSOR.

LONDON, July 15.—Evening.—It is reported the Prussian government itself demanded of France the recall of Benedetti and that the European powers yesterday united in a protest against the policy of Prussia, but without effect.

The excitement arising from the situation was intense here all day. Business is at a stand still and commercial quotations quite nominal.

41ST CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

Close of the Session—Message from the President Concerning Indian Appropriations and Necessity for Legislation Relative to the Merchant Marine—Compromise on the Indian Question—Session Extended for Five Hours to Consider the Shipping Interests—Adjournment Sine Die.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 15, 1870.

SENATE.

The Executive session of the previous evening was continued until three o'clock this morning. The Senate again met at nine o'clock, and at half past nine went into Executive session.

Without opening the doors the time for adjournment sine die was extended from noon until two o'clock. And then also, in continuing open session, the third and last Conference on the Indian Appropriation bill was concurred in. It adopts the substitute of the Senate for the House bill, making the appropriations read by the Senate, with a proviso that nothing contained in the bill shall be construed either to affirm or deny the validity of the treaties made by the Indian Peace Commissioners.

At 2:40 doors were opened and a message received from the President calling attention to the breaking out of war in Europe and the necessity of some action on the part of Congress relative to shipping interests.

The message was read and subsequently a bill to encourage the building of ships for foreign trade and for other purposes was taken up.

Various amendments were offered to the bill, among them one by Mr. MORRILL (Vt.) restricting the time during which American registers may be issued to foreign built vessels to three months instead of eight.

Mr. WILSON favored fixing the period at five months, by which time Congress could extend it if necessary.

After long discussion by Messrs. Morrill, Bayard, Wilson, Conkling, Sherman, Cameron, Morrill, (Me.) and Chandler, the bill was laid aside informally.

Mr. STEWART, on leave, presented the credentials of Richard H. Whitely and Henry C. Farrow, Senators elect from Georgia. Laid on the table.

Messrs. Wilson and Casserly were appointed in conjunction with a Committee of the House to inform the President Congress was ready to adjourn.

They subsequently reported that the President had no further communications to make.

Bills passed appropriating the Chattahoochee Arsenal to Florida for educational purposes, and to enlarge the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Idaho Territory.

Mr. CHANDLER made an ineffectual effort to get up a bill which had been discussed, but Mr. BAYARD, who had the floor, declined to yield.

At five o'clock the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House met at nine o'clock.

A message was received from the Senate announcing it had passed the bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the Indian service with a substitute, being the Senate Appropriation bill.

After discussion, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendment, and Messrs. Allison and Holman were appointed a Committee of Conference.

Majority and minority reports in the Missouri contested election case of Shields against Van Horn were made, and postponed till next session.

Mr. CESSNA called up the Indiana contested election case, the majority resolution being that Julian, sitting member, was entitled to the seat, and that Reid, contestant, be paid $4,500 for his expenses.

After discussion the resolution was adopted, with amendments allowing $2,500 to Joseph Segar, of Virginia, and $1,500 to Grafton, of Texas, for prosecuting their respective claims to seats.

The Senate joint resolution postponing the hour of adjournment till two o'clock was concurred in.

Mr. BINGHAM moved to suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill appropriating $100,000 for the erection of a postoffice and court house building in Trenton, N. J. Rejected—yeas 100, nays 60, less than a two-thirds vote in the affirmative.

Various propositions looking to the payment of clerks during recess were voted down, amid much confusion, and then the House took recess, after which

Mr. DAWES offered a resolution postponing the House adjournment until five o'clock. Negatived.

Mr. DAWES, from Conference Committee on Indian appropriation bill, made a report, recommending concurrence in the Senate amendment, with the condition that it be not construed into affirmative or disaffirmative of any forms of the Senate over the subject. He stated the House wanted nothing but a transference of the question until next session. He submitted the report without argument.

Mr. SARGENT sought the floor, but met with shouts of "vote," "question," &c.

The report was agreed to.

After the vote Mr. SARGENT remarked the House had by its action lost the whole principle it fought for for the last three sessions. It was a surrender of everything on principle and fact. [Shouts of "Not at all."]

Mr. DAWES renewed his concurrent resolution, detaining the session until five o'clock.

Mr. ELDRIDGE sought the floor and was notified by the Speaker that if he persisted there would not be no adjournment to-day, to which he replied in an excited manner, that the action of the Speaker was outrageous. [Loud calls to order.]

The Speaker put the question on postponing the House adjournment and declared it carried.

A member on the Democratic side called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. ELDRIDGE moved to adjourn and called the yeas and nays, saying he had done so because his rights had been overridden by the chair.

The Speaker, evincing much earnestness, remarked one motion to adjourn was in order and had been put, but that there was just time to save a precipatate adjournment as against factious action.

The yeas and nays were not ordered, the House refused to adjourn and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. DAWES then moved recess till four and a quarter o'clock. Negatived.

Mr. WILKINSON moved to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution reciting the imminence of war in Europe, the insurrection in Cuba and the probability of Spain's losing all control over the island and its being seized and held by France, and authorizing the President, if it became necessary during the recess, to recognize the revolutionary government of Cuba as a de facto government and take such other steps as in his judgment will prevent any foreign government taking possession of the island or any other island in American seas.

The rules were not suspended.

Mr. COX sought the floor to offer a resolution relative to free ships.

Mr. LOGAN moved to suspend the rules and pass the joint resolution for the relief of certain contractors for constructing vessels of war and steam machinery. Rejected.

Pending the vote, a message was received from the President urging the necessity of passing the Indian appropriation bill, and referring to the prospects of a European war and the necessity of increasing the American commercial marine by the purchase of ships abroad, &c.

Mr. SCHENCK moved that the message be referred to the Committee of Ways and Means, with instructions to consider it and report at the earliest moment practicable. Agreed to.

Several resolutions for free ships offered by Messrs. Cox, Butler (Mass.), Ingersoll, Potter, Mungen and Conger, were also referred.

The House at 2:40 P. M. took a recess for an hour.

On the House resuming session, Mr. BLAIR, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the House it is not expedient to further extend the present session of Congress to take further action at this time on the President's message.

Mr. SCHENCK, from the minority of the Committee, reported a bill authorizing for a limited time the registration of foreign built iron vessels.

After a long debate a motion to lay the whole project on the table was made by Mr. CLEVELAND and negatived—yeas 72, nays 95.

A committee, Messrs. Dawes, Schenck and Cox, appointed to wait on the President, reported there would be no further communications to make.

The Speaker then, at five o'clock, declared the session adjourned sine die.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

THE CAPITAL.

Message from the President on the Subject of Indian Affairs and Commercial Marine—The War in Europe—Red Cloud Endeavoring to Secure Indian Peace.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 15, 1870.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:—Your attention is respectfully called to the necessity of passing an Indian Appropriation bill before the members of Congress separate. Without such appropriations hostilities are sure to ensue, and with them suffering, loss of life and expenditures vast as compared with the amount asked.

The latest intelligence from Europe indicates the imminence of war between France and North Germany.—In view of this a sound policy indicates the importance of some legislation tending to enlarge the commercial marine of this country. The vessels of this country at the present time are insufficient to meet the increase which the existence of war in Europe will impose upon the commerce of the United States, and I submit to the consideration of Congress that the interests of the country will be advanced by the opportunity afforded to our citizens to purchase vessels of foreign construction for the foreign trade of the country. An act to this effect may be limited in its deviation to meet the immediate exigency. The foreign mail service of the United States is in a large degree dependent upon the Bremen and Hamburg lines of steamers. The Postoffice Department has entered into contracts in writing with the two companies above named, and with the Williams and Guion line, respectively, for a regular and continuous service of two years. The only arrangements that could be made with the Inman and Cunard lines is temporary, and may be broken off at any time. The North German lines are first-class in point of speed and equipment, their steamers usually making the trip across the Atlantic in from twenty-four to thirty-six hours in advance of Williams and Guion. Should the North German steamers be blockaded or impeded by France, our postal interests with foreign nations will be greatly embarassed, unless Congress interpose for its relief.

I suggest to Congress the propriety of further postponing the time for adjournment, with a view of considering the question herein communicated. U. S. GRANT.

THE THREATENED WAR IN EUROPE.

A special says: Secretary Fish had several long consultations with the President in reference to diplomatic changes and the threatened war in Europe. In reference to the latter, Secretary Fish is still of the opinion that war is inevitable, and says that there is no question in his mind that France means war under any circumstances; that the telegrams were all manipulated by the French agents, and as proof of this states that the foreign Ministers here are unable to obtain any dispatches, and those they have been receiving have been very much confused. He does not give much credence to the statement in the London telegrams that France will send a fleet to capture Cuba. The remark that this Government might have something to say is regarded as significant, coming as it does from the Secretary of State. Fears are entertained that a general European war may be at full blast before the summer is over. We cannot see how it can be avoided. He has not received any dispatches of importance on the subject from our Ministers at Paris, London or Madrid, but has sent them telegraphic instructions to observe strict neutrality, etc., and expects important advices from Minister Sickles to-day. The Prussian Minister last night received a cable dispatch from Berlin announcing the departure of the French fleet to blockade the Prussian ports. The information was at once communicated to the President and the Cabinet.

THE INDIANS—RED CLOUD FOR PEACE.

The Indian Bureau has received the following telegram from Col. Chambers:

Fort Fitterman, July 14.—Red Coud and sixty lodges of the Sioux came here yesterday and left to-day with a determination of inducing all the Indians in the country to make peace. He goes from here direct to the Cheyennes and Araphoes.

MINISTER TO ENGLAND.

The Senate confirmed, after a long debate, Fred. F. Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to London, vice Lathrop Motley recalled. The vote was forty against three, namely, Robertson, Ross and Sprague. Mr. Sumner did not vote.

OTHER CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate confirmed Arthur McArthur, of Wisconsin, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; Ambrose C. Dunn, of Virginia, Consul General at Hokœdadi.

THE INDIAN BILL.

The Inian bill continues the Peace Commissioners another year. The Senate has affirmed the act of the President in the removal of old Indian Agents of his predecessor and supplying their places with army officers.

BILLS SIGNED.

The bills presented for signature were signed, including the Army and Indian Appropriations bills, the latter within five minutes of adjournment.

GONE HOME.

At last half the members of Congress left Washington for their homes to-night.

THE GEORGIA BILL SIGNED.

The President has signed the Georgia bill.

Commercial Convention at Rochester, N. Y. Transportation Question.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ROCHESTER, July 15.—The Commercial Union Convention organized this morning. Several hundred delegates were present, including many prominent men, Governor Fairchild, of Wisconsin, Governor Merrell, Iowa, and Ex-Governor Seymour among the number. Nathaniel Sands, of New York, was chosen President, and addressed the delegates on the object of the Convention. Ship transportation by the Erie Canal, the lakes, Fox River and Missouri River, and Pacific Railroad were demanded. Mr. Sands explained the drawback put on our business prosperity by the iniquitous fogyism that prevails in the management of our great inland marine. He argued ably for the extension of the Erie Canal, enlarged and perfected, to the Mississippi river and the grand centers of western commerce.

Hon. Peter Cooper, of New York, followed. He advocated the speedy introduction of steam upon the canal, and gave his views of certain plans which met his approval.

Letters were received from Gov. Hoffman and Comptroller Connelly, of New York, regretting their inability to attend and approving the objects of the Convention.

Gov. Fairchild, of Wisconsin, read a lengthy address, setting forth the estimated advantages of the proposed improvement of Wisconsin and Fox rivers. The address was replete with statistics and figures in support of his position. The excessive charges for transportation he complained of as the great evil that afflicted th west. He looked upon the Fox River improvement as of great national importance and should be made by the general Government. A free canal from the Mississippi to the Lakes was to remove a great obstacle to cheap transportation. He was emphatic in the expression of the belief that the Erie canal should be free to commerce and that the State would find itself richer for granting such freedom. This declaration was received with cheers.

Gov. Seymour addressed the Convention. He said the reform inaugurated by the commercial men of the State last spring, by demanding lower tolls, a better system of repairs, and canal policy came just at a time when business was depressed and had infused new life into internal commerce. The policy begun should be fully carried out. For the present it would cause more expenditures and loss. The canals should not be used as mere tools to extort taxes. If the revenues of the State are lessened, so are taxes on the people. Canal tolls tax the poor by enhancing the value of articles that are to be used in the interests of commerce, industry and labor, and not as mere tax gatherers.

The Committee on Resolutions reported a long series which were read. They declare the purpose of the union to be to abrogate canal contracts and punish any canal commissioners or canal officer who shall be found conniving with canal contractors for the continuance of contracts. They urge the speedy completion of the Wisconsin and Fox river improvements, the enlargement and putting in repair of the Erie Canal, and reduction of tolls, and introduction of steam towage on canals. One resolution advocates annulling tolls upon boats. The resolutions were adopted.

After the customary resolution of thanks to the officers of the Convention and Mayor and Common Council of the city, the Convention adjourned sine die.

—Philip H. Dedrick, of New York, has brought suit in the United States District Court against the Chicago City Railroad Company, to recover damages because the plaintiff was ejected from a street car. He had refused to pay six cents fare, but tendered five cents, which he claimed was the legal amount. The defendant pleaded an act of Congress assessing two and a half per cent. on the gross receipts of the company, with the right to collect an additional sum from each passenger. The case was argued at length and taken under advisement.

—Thursday, while a passenger train was approaching Loupfork bridge, ninety-five miles west of Omaha, a prisoner that had been arrested at Lone Tree station for an attemp to burn a store made his escape through a window of the water closet, and although handcuffed alighted all right and rolled down a bank into the weeds. The officer in charge of the prisoner not discovering the escape until some time afterwards, then jumped off to recapture the prisoner, it was not known with what success.

The prize for the best appearance was awarded to the Excelsior, of Detroit. The next annual regatta will probably be at Erie, Pa.

—A freight train was wrecked on the Kansas Pacific Railroad at two o'clock Thursday morning, a few miles from Hays City. The engineer, Reynolds, and fireman, Wills, were instantly killed. THE DAILY GAZETTE.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Allegheny County.

GAZETTE BUILDING:
Corner of Sixth Avenue and Smithfield Street.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1870.

GOLD closed in New York on yesterday at 115¼.

IT IS expected that under the new tax law about $120,000,000 will be collected, of which tobacco will yield $52,000,000, stamps $15,000,000 and income $14,000,000.

IT WAS rumored on the streets yesterday that the nomination so respectfully declined by D. N. White, Esq., will be thrown as a sop to the Germans by the managers of the new third party.

THE Iron Moulders' Union passed resolutions at Philadelphia on Wednesday, denouncing the organized immigration of Coolies as calculated to reduce the wages of mechanics and laborers, but expressing their willingness to extend the hand of welcome to emigrants from any and every country who come to share the benefits and privileges of our Republican institutions.

MRS. LINCOLN has at last received a pension of $3,000 per year, the bill having received the signature of the President. The action of Congress will be commended by all who remember with gratitude and love the martyred LINCOLN, who, had he taken the advantages which his honest nature would not permit him to take, might have left his widow and children far above the reach of poverty.

A BOMBSHELL thrown into the midst of the disorganizers could not have created more panic than did the dignified letter of declination of D. N. White, Esq., which we yesterday published. After the first alarm had subsided in a measure, faithful messengers were dispatched to all parts of the country to hunt up a substitute worthy to stand in the place of the candidate withdrawn. How far they succeeded the Commercial will best tell this morning.

THE organization of the Union Congressional Republican Executive Committee is as follows: Republican papers throughout the country will aid in the good cause by copying the list of the officers of the Committee:

Hon. Henry Wilson, Chairman,
Hon. J. H. Platt, Jr., Secretary,
Hon. Simon Cameron,
Hon. Zachariah Chandler,
Hon. B. F. Rice,
Hon. Fred. A. Sawyer,
Hon. John A. Logan,
Hon. John A. Ketcham,
Hon. Aaron A. Sargent,
Col. J. H. Clendening, Assistant Secretary,
Wm. S. Huntington, Treasurer.

All communications should be addressed to Hon J. H. Platt, Jr., M. C., Washington, D. C.

THE Commercial announced on Thursday morning that there was a probability that the bolters' ticket would be withdrawn. Such a thing would be greatly deprecated by the Post, which fondly flatters itself that if they will persevere in their work of disorganization, it would secure the election of the entire Democratic ticket next October, and therefore the "only" expresses its astonishment at the sudden change which has come over the dreams of the "organ of the ring," in the following words:

> Are we to judge from the above that the "largest" is getting weak in the knees, preparing to eat dirt, and play second fiddle to the ring? It did not talk that way a week ago.

If the Post had only given good heed to the teachings of the GAZETTE, it would not have had occasion to express its astonishment at the proposition to withdraw the ticket of the "dissatisfied." No one who comprehended the situation ever thought that anything else would be the result. There was not much hope before, friend; there is none now. You should have been able to see that the "knees were weak" from the beginning.

THE Post, so willing to magnify into importance the new third party, which it full well knows is the creature born of a self-constituted committee, is a little worried, if not actually frightened, in the discovery that a game of similar nature is being played within its own party. Mark this paragraph, from the Post, the first lieutenant of the Commercial, in bringing about the organization of the new party, and a paper that has thus far deemed the the disintegration movement regular and in order:

> "It might be considered indelicate, if not impudent, to offer to bestow what is not within one's giving, which will apply to the conduct of a certain self constituted committee, going around tendering nominations for Congress, Prothonotary, and other valuable offices at the disposal of a Democratic Convention. If the gentlemen who make the tender had any authority, it might be considered complimentary, but it is as cheap as it is transparent. The Democracy are not within the keeping of any man, and will designate, in the usual way, at the proper time, who shall be their standard-bearers. We have no fears but that the best men of the county will be designated; the young, active and energetic element must be called upon to take the lead, and we shall have no fears for the result.

There is consistency for you, with a vengeance. Karnahan, Kirk and Karuthers not only appointed the delegates to the July Convention but made up the entire ticket, and the Post could see nothing wrong in the movement. But now, while cunning manipulators encouraged by the prospects of a Democratic triumph next fall, are setting up a ticket independent of the Convention, the Post cries out wickedly against the impudence and irregularity of the proceeding. What is right in one case seems to be wrong in another, at least in the estimation of our cotemporary.

WAR DECLARED.

War has at last been declared by the aggressive Napoleon against King William of Prussia. As we have already anticipated, France desired war, and has only waited opportunity to become offensive and aggressive. She has been jealous of the power of Prussia ever since the brilliant success of the arms of that country over Austria in 1866, and has watched anxiously for an occasion to wrest from the German government the laurels so bravely and dearly won at Sadowa and in other hard fought battles. The time had come for striking the blow; the casus belli was not difficult to obtain. The haughty French Emperor, judging from the never failing thermometer of public sentiment in France, indicating unrest, disquietude and discontent on the part of the people, felt that it would be disastrous to his own popularity to live in peace with outside mankind and to permit the martial glories of France to become forgotten and fade away as time placed them farther back in the past. New deeds of glory, fresh victories and exhibitions of prowess by land and by sea, he knew were needed to strengthen himself on his throne and to arrest his dynasty from impending internal danger. Prussia, with her powerful army and brave people, first gave what the Emperor could construe as an insult to the national honor of France, and it was with Prussia more than with any other nation on the face of the globe, that the French would make war, for in case of victory over her valiant battalions, the glory would be great and enduring and would at once lift France out of the uncertain position she occupies on a war basis among the leading powers of Europe. When, therefore, Prince Leopold was, through the instrumentality of Gen Prim, tendered the throne of distracted Spain, and Prussia neither formally opposed nor condemned the wisdom of his candidature, France issued to King William an arrogant demand that the throne-offered Prince, should be compelled to give up his aspirations in that direction, the outside world knew he meant war. Prussia calmly considered the situation, and, with becoming dignity, asserted her innocence of intrigue, and yet maintained that over Prince Leopold and his actions, King William had no control. This answer suited not Napoleon. He would have had the Prussian Government kneel for mercy and ask forgiveness for a sin never committed. Prussia, with as proud a banner as France, with a King as fearless of war as Napoleon, with a people as truly loyal and warlike as the French, would not bend the knee, but, reliant upon her own powers, awaited the denouement—more anxious for peace than for war, but determined to retain her dignity and position at all hazards.

The world looked on with interest. The press of Europe deprecated the course of Napoleon in endeavoring to force Prussia into a war for the mere sake of war, but the crafty Emperor, heedless of the dictates of humanity, and only anxious to satisfy the proverbial thirst for blood on the part of his proud and ambitious people, and to secure still higher place in their estimation, plunged deeper and declared war; but he was cunning enough to base the declaration not on the trifling Prince Leopold question, but on the treatment of Embassador Benedetti by the Prussian King, who had simply granted that obtrusive official permission to return to France, rather than offer through him to the Emperor an apology, or to develop what were his intentions. That act of the King was accepted by the over-anxious Emperor to mean war, and forthwith was made the proclamation.

It is difficult to surmise what the end will be. France has certainly been preparing for the sanguinary contest she has precipitated. Prussia has over 800,000 soldiers available against the 757,000 of France. The latter has much the advantage in the marine service. But it is impossible for these two great military giants to meet in combat without complicating all Europe in the war. Much depends upon being early in the field and the rapid movement of troops, so that before any alliances can be formed the first great battle will have taken place. After the first shock of arms it is quite reasonable to suppose the other powers of Europe will have shaped their course and taken sides. That Austria, still writhing under the severe castigation Prussia administered to her in '66, will ally herself with France there can be little doubt, but Russia will hardly stand idle, and in view of recent conferences between the Czar and King William, it is probable will take sides with Prussia, Spain with Prussia, Italy with France and England neutral, may possibly complete the war programme. But these are all surmises. A general war in Europe is to be deplored and the peaceful world cannot but hope that the storm about opening may not be of long duration.

Our own country, fresh from the awful horrors of war, will look on the contest with no pleasure. We will preserve, it is to be hoped, better neutrality towards the contending foes than was preserved towards us in the recent terrible struggle to conquer internal rebellion. An extra session of Congress has been ordered by the President, in order, no doubt, to deplore the war in Europe, and to declare the neutrality of the United States. In a business point of view we cannot suffer, but all the advantages are on our side. A war crippling the industries of Europe must bring prosperity to our doors, and and we shall get back what went from us when our own happy land was the scene of carnage and confusion.

WHAT HAVE THEY REFORMED?

Karnahan & Kirk's new party is called a "Reform" party. The corruption of the old party was so great, in their estimation, that a "reform" was absolutely necessary, and hence the need of the new party.

The authors of this new party have had an open field before them, and have had every possible chance of establishing any and every reform they could think of. No one has interfered to prevent or hinder them. They framed and issued their own call; they were able to hold their own primary meetings without obstruction; they chose their own delegates; they organized their convention to suit themselves; and they had the votes to put through any measure of reform they pleased. If, therefore, they have adopted not even one reform, it is either their own fault or because they found nothing to reform.

The complaints made against the old organization, verbally and in the press, by these men, were

First—The method of making nominations. The delegate system, they said, was corrupt and intrinsically unfair. The nomination of a ticket by popular vote was demanded as a remedy for that.

Second—The nominations of the old party were controlled by a "ring." This "ring" must be broken up and the people left free to choose a ticket, unembarrassed by professional politicians and delegates.

Third—Nominations were not fairly or honestly made. Men with a majority of votes at their backs were counted out by trickery and fraud.

Fourth—Bad men were nominated. A new party was needed to bring out better men as candidates.

Admitting, for the sake of this argument, that these charges were true, have these alleged faults of the old organization been reformed? Let us see.

First—As to the method of making nominations. The call for the new party alleged this as one of the causes of revolt. Yet the callers, while revolting at it, adopted this alleged "corrupt" method as their own method of nominating. They adhered strictly to the old system. It is true they appointed a committee of three to frame a new and better method to report to the Convention for its adoption; but each one of the three had a plan of his own, and the committee could not report! So they left the old plan alone; and this, the chief object of fault-finding, was not reformed or changed.

Second—As to "rings." It is notorious that the nominations of the late new party convention were controlled by a "ring." This new "ring" would not even allow the name of a delegate to be announced before the convention met, without first submitting it to them. The people might elect whom they pleased; but unless the names pleased this "ring" the delegates could not come in. No set of men ever usurped, or attempted to usurp such authority in our party; and if, in the beginning, the evil spirit of "ring" was cast out of this party, it was in the end like the man who had a devil cast out of him, and to whom the evil spirit returned with large re-inforcements, and the last end of that party was worse than the first.

Third—As to frauds in making nominations. Did this Convention reform that? Not much. On the second ballot for Prothonotary, 50 votes were cast—23 for one, 20 for another, and 7 for two others. On the third ballot, after the Convention had thinned out, 58 votes were cast—28 for the man who had 23 before, and 30 for another. The man who got 23 votes on the second and 28 on the third was not on the "slate;" hence the need for counting him out. Is there any "Reform" in that?"

Fourth—As to the character of the ticket—is it any improvement? Two of the nominees were nominated by acclamation, and both of them were the oldest of old politicians—so old that the memory of man runneth not back to the time when they were not before the people. Two of the candidates on our last year's ticket were nominated for Assembly—an endorsement of our nominations to that extent; and two of the other four Assemblymen received very nearly half the vote of the Convention. This shows our last year's nominations were not bad, even in their eyes; and as to the new men who were nominated for Assembly we can challenge comparison with our last year's ticket without fear. Alexander Millar is as good a man as Thomas Penney, in every respect; and Miles S. Humphreys will compare favorably with any man on the new ticket. As to the other men on the ticket, whilst we acknowledge them to be men of reputation, character and ability, we cannot see that they have any claim to superiority over the men likely to be put on the regular Republican ticket.

So, on all these four points, there has been no "Reform." The new party proceeded in the grooves of the old, and has failed to show any improvement in its methods or acts.

But there was one change to be noted; and if "change" is "reform," this may be set down on that score, although we fail to see it. We allude to the manner in which the Convention was made up.

It is now demonstrated that meetings to elect delegates to that Convention were not held in more than a dozen districts. The rest were either self-appointed or appointed by the "ring." The bulk of the Convention was made up of these. It was, in every sense, a "packed" Convention. But more. Names of men were inserted in the list of delegates who were not there who are opposed to the movement, and who aver that no meetings were held in their districts. We have even heard it said that when the names of these absentees were called, and no response received, votes were put down for them on the tally the same as if they had been present.

This is certainly a change. But is it an improvement? The old party never resorted to such tricks; and we fancy the people will fail to be impressed with the idea that this is "Reform."

There has, then, been no reform, and the changes are not for the better. The high-sounding pretensions of the manifesto have not been fulfilled; and if any reform in politics is to be attained, in this county, it is now plain it must be reached through the regular Republican organization.

"GRATIFYING PROGRESS."

STILL THEY COME.

CLINTON, July 11, 1870.

EDITORS GAZETTE: A short time ago I received a circular from the headquarters of Bob Carnahan, Kirk & Co., asking my immediate action to have delegates elected to attend the convention of reformers, as they style themselves, which met in the Court House a few days ago. I did not act in the matter as requested, and Findley township was not represented, and no delegates reported to headquarters as requested in the circular. Now I will give you my reasons. And first, I condemn the whole movement as a gross swindle on the honest people of the Republican party. The very idea of Bob Carnahan and such men, as leaders, is evidence enough for me. I have not forgotten the part played by this gentleman in toadying to Andy Johnson for the sake of the loaves and fishes. I was in the city when the great Moses was swinging around the circle, and the only flag that welcomed that noted traitor of the South in Pittsburgh was hoisted on the Custom House and from copperhead windows; every honest Republican and lover of his country despised and repudiated him (Andy); yet where was Carnahan then. He ought to cry reform, surely. Now the question is simply this, are we ready to hand over the government to the Copperheads, as the Commercial, Carnahan & Co. desire? I for one say emphatically no. I have spent too much of my means, and gave my only son to help try and save this government, and I am not satisfied to hand over the grand old ship of State to her enemy. I have been a reader of the Pittsburgh Commercial for a good while, and it has been crying reform for the last year or more. At first I thought it was honest. I watched it closely during the election of State Treasurer, and last fall, after we had made our county nominations, it boasted that it had carried the whole thing and hoisted the ticket to the masthead of the paper. And now you would think by reading that paper that our officers were all dishonest scoundrels. I come to the conclusion that the Commercial is not honest in its cry of reform, and I think it is keeping bad company. Now, I am for reform and for honest officers, if we can get them, and the way to get them is to stick to the party and go to the primary meetings. Use your influence to get a good man nominated; if you get a bad one on the ticket scratch him off, and try again. I see no reason for hoisting overboard wholesale, faithful officers like Negley, Graham, Howard, Deacon White, Humphreys, and many others who are honest and faithful, to fill their places with untried men you know nothing of. If we send men to Harrisburg that will vote to rob the State Treasury, be sure and mark them this year.

GEORGE BURNS.

MEMORIALS against the enfranchisement of women have been circulated throughout the country for the signatures of women opposed to their sex voting.

An exchange remarks that "among the earlier signers will be recognized the names of many ladies, who, by reason of high social position and recognized intellectual qualities, are likely to influence very powerfully their sisters everywhere. The first signer is the wife of Gen. Sherman, and she is immediately followed by the wife of the lamented Admiral Dahlgren. It will be remarked as an interesting fact that the memorial is signed by Miss Catharine E. Beecher, who thus clearly indicates that she does not desire that inestimable privilege of the ballot which her distinguished brother, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, wishes to bestow upon her. Beyond all question this movement is the most serious blow that the woman's suffrage question has sustained. If the leaders of woman's enfranchisement cannot convince the most influential and highly educated women in the land that they are cruelly oppressed in being denied the ballot, the reform at which these leaders aim is not likely to find favor with the men.

THE flags on all the public buildings in Washington were at half mast on Wednesday in memory of Dahlgren. The funeral was to take place on Friday morning at nine o'clock. The pall-bearers were to be Generals Shriver, Zeilin, Eaton and Sherman, Commodore Emmons, Rear-Admirals Hoff and Goldsborough, and Vice-Admiral Porter.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Few supposed from the glowing telegrams relative to the Young Men's International Christian Convention, recently held at Indianapolis, that the spirit of caste was developed in a quarter it was not expected. During the pendency of a resolution, to appoint an agent to establish societies in the Southern States, a motion was made to amend as follows: 'Resolved, That the labors of the Young Men's Christian Association be extended among our colored people, and that there be, among the young men of America no discrimination upon the basis of color." The honor of making and defending this amendment belongs to a young Methodist minister, Rev. J. W. Hamilton, of New England, formerly a minister of the Pittsburgh Conference. The introduction of the amendment started a lively time in the Convention. Mr. George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia, feared it would be fraught with disaster, and begged the mover to withdraw it, but the request was not granted. Finally, on motion of a Mr. Hutchings, of New York, it was tabled. The opponents of the resolution soon found they were in a sad fix, and sought to obliterate their action, and on motion of a Mr. Flournoy, of Urbana, Ohio, the entire proceedings were erased. The flame spread under the operation of this gag law operation, and in spite of the agents of the Associated Press, the mat- has been made public. This action is certainly singularly unfortunate, in view of the attitude of the leading Churches, and the party in power, on the subject of caste. The Christian Advocate, of this city, in commenting upon the course of the Convention, pronounces it a disgrace to the Convention, and it calls upon the local Associations to promptly and fearlessly repudiate this action, and if they do not, it has doubts as to whether the age will much longer need them.

The new Methodist mission in Salt Lake city, Rev. G. M. Pierce pastor, although only six weeks old, the congregation numbers one hundred.

The membership of the Moravian Church in America, Northern and Southern Provinces, British Province and German, is twenty-five thousand, a gain over last year of one hundred and seventeen. The missions comprise seventeen missionaries, two of them women, and have congregations containing over sixty-nine thousand persons, making the Moravian number in all ninety-four thousand five hundred and thirty-four persons.

It is estimated that the rental of eight or ten of the principal churches of Chicago, of several denominations, average from sixty to seventy-five dollars per pew, which, says a leading journal, is a virtual exclusion of the poor.

The St. Louis Central Baptist represents Missouri is emphatically missionary ground; the six or seven hundred ministers do not accomplish the work of one hundred men of consecrated and undying purpose.

Notwithstanding Professor Knapp, sent to Madrid, Spain, as a missionary by the American Baptists, has connected himself with the Presbyterians, the Executive Committee of the American Union have determined to establish a mission in Spain, and have taken measures to effect the object.

Leading minds among the Congregationalists are beginning to see that pure Independency cannot hold its own against the more centralized systems. The question of the scripturalness of organization is lost sight of, organized efforts succeed, better than the independency of each separate congregation. Organic power must exist in church government, or else loose views are likely to prevail, much to the detriment of the body politic.

The editor of a prominent religious paper in the West, shows very conclusively how a Conference or Synod of ministers may be made unpleasant and unsuccessful, by two methods, forming cliques and holding caucuses. In regard to the first, he argues (1) it requires labor, and surmising, false disputings, and some adroitness. (2) Find fault with those you wish to put down, and never speak well of them. (3) Try to make some preacher feel that they are oppressed, and others have conspired against them. (4) Be unscrupulous as to means—push things by truth or otherwise. In regard to secret caucuses, he pronounces the arts of demagogues, the culmination and conciliation of jealousy, prejudice, ambition, wire-working, and general meanness—closing with these words: Hold caucuses—the devil will help you, and then you can make your ministerial brethren unhappy, destroy brotherly love, and obstruct the cause of Christ.

In the circular letter sent out by the Rev. C. H. Malcolm, of Rhode Island, inviting Baptists to sign its declaration of faith in the general Baptist doctrines, but allowing "entire freedom to each church to fix its own terms of communion," says that some thirty ministers, nearly all Baptists, including one or two college presidents and four doctors of divinity, have signed this paper.

The Lutheran Theological Seminary, at Philadelphia, has a funded capital of one hundred and twelve thousand five hundred and forty-five dollars. The receipts last year were eight thousand one hundred and forty-one dollars; the expenses sixty-six hundred and fifty-two dollars.

Rev. Dr. Dales, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, in his sermon on the thirtieth anniversary of his pastorate, stated that only one of the members of the Presbytery that took part in the services of that occasion were now living. All the ruling elders, and but one of the six trustees, that were living then are alive at present. Of the entire membership of the Church then, only three now remain in it. Since that day over two thousand persons have been received into the membership of the church, thirteen have studied for the ministry, and two have gone as laborers to the foreign field.

Delegates from different Catholic societies met in Lowell, Massachusetts, to take action on funerals. Resolutions were adopted recommending two carriages as a suitable number, and requesting the pastors of the Catholic churches to read the resolutions and use their influence for carrying out the views expressed.

Quite an extensive revival of religion prevails in the Baptist church at Holyoke, Massachusetts, over one hundred having been received into church fellowship since last February, baptising eighty, and the gracious work continues unabated.

Since the organization of the Presbyterian Board in 1833, it has employed six hundred and forty-eight missionaries, male and female. More than one-third of this number have been stationed among the American Indians. The total number of communicants and scholars connected with the missions of the Board make in all nine thousand five hundred and twelve.

HIS Serene Highness Fisk, of Erie, was invited to attend with his staff the reception ball given to the Seventh New York Regiment at Cape May. The Seventh is supposed to have more gentlemen in its ranks than any other militia organization in the country, and the verdant Cape May folk asked Fisk to meet them. Fisk and President Grant, and the Governors of half a dozen States. Can it be possible that a candid and open professor of such frailties as Mr. Fisk excels in, because he has thus far evaded the law, is to be honored in this way? Verily, if every other invitee had declined to go to meet such company, we should not have reproached them very bitterly.

SONNET:

THE SELF-SUFFICIENT SOUL.

The world it charges selfishness on some
Because not constantly they're in the mart
Whereat she sits as censor of the heart,
To know its secrecy; as if the doom
Of dwelling still from charity apart,
Debarred by forms, must have the added smart
Of hypocritic smile or tear from whom
Adventurous honesty before their eye;
For 'tis our manhood that we may not be
Dependent for our spirit lives on earth,
But in and for us make a universe,
And live, love, worship these. It is the curse
In meeting men, that all the soul's pure worth
E'en must, through fear of self, belie its birth.

Curious Discovery of Treasure.

[From the Calaveras, Cal., Chronicle, June 25.]

On Friday, the 17th inst., as a company of Italian miners were sluicing in Wet Gulch, near Whiskey Slide, they washed out of the bank a tin box containing $1,572 in "individual" gold coin. There was a fifty dollar "slug" among the rest. The lucky finders of the treasure were at work in the old Hamilton ranch, close to the site where a Frenchman called "Jerry" kept a store in early days. As long ago as 1852, "Jerry" was murdered in his store, and it was supposed at the time that his assassins secured the money he was known to possess and made good their escape. Since the discovery of the treasure by the Italians, however, the most raesonable conjecture is that he buried the money, and that those who imbued their hands in his blood obtained nothing but guilty consciences to compensate them for their crime. The box that contained the money was nearly eaten up with rust, but the coin had been undisturbed since deposited in the bosom of mother earth for safe keeping. The money, we believe, was coined by Moffat & Co., of San Francisco. Thus, after eighteen years, by one of those queer, inexplicable freaks of wayward fortune, is peaceably unearthed, an object, to possess which human blood has been shed, and another link added to the chain that binds our recollection to the dark and bloody deeds of early days in California.

BUILD UP THE SYSTEM.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with all who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sieve-like skin a moisture exudes which contains the elements of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustaining elements can be supplied by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor. All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast to that which is good." Of the forty millions of people in the United States, probably one fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite; that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE ST. (near Court House) Pittsburgh.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 15, 1870.

The day witnessed greater excitement in financial circles than any since the act of war between France and Prussia began. There was an unsettled feeling, which reflected on the gold market, where the volume of business was immense and fluctuations frequent. Before the formal opening of the room, gold sold at 114½. There were private cable dispatches received later last night, giving 65.50 as the quotation for rentes, and saying great excitement prevailed at Berlin and that war was inevitable. The latest public dispatch gives 66f. 90c. as the quotation of rentes. The reported prospect is more peaceful, which caused a decline to 112@112½, from which there was a rally to 114½, the recorded price in the Room. At this point London dispatches were received saying war was inevitable, that Prussia was massing her forces in France and that a fleet had sailed under sealed orders but was believed to blockade Prussian ports. This carried prices again up to 114⅞; from this there was another reaction to 114¼@114⅜, when the news came that all hopes of peaceable adjustment between France and Prussia were given up, and that Napoleon will formally declare war. This news was not fully credited and only advanced the price to 114⅝, after which it declined to 114⅛@114⅜. Subsequently dispatches were received saying the Corps Legislatif declared for war and rentes went down from 65 to 50, which advanced gold to 115⅝. The excitement continued without abatement to the close.

At one time during the afternoon there was an advance in French rentes to 66f 50c reported, which was interpreted as slight hope for peace. On this gold fell from 15⅜ to 14⅞, and there was a sharp rally in prices on the Stock Exchange, but at the close rentes were quoted at 66f and falling, while the cable telegram spoke of war as inevitable. This raised gold to the highest point of the day, and started a downward movement in stocks. Exchange market closed at 16⅛@16½. The reported specie shipments to-morrow amount to $1,500,000, of which $1,250,000 go by Dale line and $250,000 by Bremen. Carrying rates 3@5 per cent. Clearances $107,000,000. The news from Europe had a marked effect on Produce Exchange and breadstuffs. The market is active and advanced, with an increased business for exports. Stock Exchange suffered by the announcement of war and for a time stocks were thrown overboard almost without regard to price. The market at the height of excitement looked like drifting into a panic, but the crisis finally averted by a decline in values, which ranged from one to five per cent., and business on such a scale of magnitude has not been witnessed for a long time.

Money is active at 5@6 on call. Discounts nominal. Sterling unsettled and nominal at 9⅛@10. Governments depressed by sales of foreign bankers and lower, closing dull and weak. Coupons '81, 13⅝@14; '62, 9@9⅛; '65, 9@9⅛; '65, 9@9⅛; new, 8@8⅛; '67, 8@8⅛@8⅛; '68, 8⅛@8⅜; 10-40s, 7@7⅛; currency, 13@13⅛.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 15, 1870. }

While the declaration of war has stimulated flour and wheat and other articles exported from this country and caused prices to take an upward turn, it has had the opposite effect on petroleum. The market to-day was pretty well demoralized under the apprehension that the export demand will be very materially reduced, which was assisted by rumors that all foreign orders had been withdrawn, and, as might be expected, there were more sellers than buyers. It is possible that these rumors may not be well grounded, that they may have been exaggerated by eastern speculators and exporters who are interested in low prices, and it is hoped that the situation may not be so bad after all, though the indications at present are not encouraging, and there is no disguising the fact that in the event of hostilities, the oil trade of this country will be badly injured. Compared with yesterday, both crude and refined have declined a full half a cent, and at the close the general impression seemed to be that the bottom had not yet been touched.

CRUDE.

Sales in the early part of the day of 1,000 bbls seller August at 11⅞@11⅜@11⅛c and, in the afternoon, 1,000 seller July at 11. This last named sale shows a decline of ⅜ to ½ of a cent per gallon as compared with yesterday, which is a very important decline in so short a time. For future deliveries there were no sales, and it is impossible to give anything like accurate quotations.

REFINED.

There was a sale of 1,000 bbls early in the day for July at 27⅛. Later in the day it was offered at 27 and later it was reported as having been sold in New York at 26⅞. For the late months there seemed to be no inquiry, whatever, and consequently there were no established quotations.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 15, 1870. }

The exciting character of the news from Europe is having a very visible influence in commercial and financial circles, and merchant and manufacturers are very much exercised: up to this writing there is nothing definite, all as yet is uncertainty, though it does begin to look as if war was almost inevitable. In case of actual hostilities, an advance in gold, breadstuffs, sugars, iron and nearly all imported articles is almost certain, and there is now a very nice opening for those who are disposed to speculate. Wheat and flour it is certain, in the event of war, will advance very naturally, as the crops in France and England are reported as being very light, and bread is almost as essential in time of war as powder and lead. And while there is or will be in all probability an average crop of wheat this year, and besides, a large amount of last year's crop yet to come on the market, yet in the event of war, it will all be wanted, as France and perhaps Prussia and England, will be largely dependent on this country for supplies, which, of course, would create a very heavy export demand, and with this an advance in prices would certainly follow. A war would also have considerable influence on the provisions market, as bacon and mess pork are indespensible to an army. Then again, sugars might and possibly will be affected as it might shut off our source of supplies from Cuba. And so we might go on and mention other articles, imported and exported, and as already intimated, a foreign war would have a tendency to appreciate nearly all of the leading commodities excepting petroleum and cotton.

ASHES—Unchanged; common soda ash, 4; refined, 4½; Pearls 9@9½; Pots 7⅛.

APPLES—In steady demand with regular sales at $4@6 per bbl as to quality.

BROOMS—Store prices; Fancy, $5,50; No. 1, $4,50; No. 2, $4; No. 3, $3,50; Common, $2,50@3.

BEANS—Dull; $1,50@1,75 per bush.

GROCERIES—There is a continued steady demand for sugars and prices are firm though unchanged. Holders are gaining confidence with the war rumors from Europe, as it is thought that in the event of a rupture between the leading powers now threatening each other, the Cuban question may assume such a form as to temporally shut off supplies. Coffees quiet. Syrups dull though they are always dull in hot weather.

GRAIN—The wheat market is firmer under the influence of light arrivals, though there is no quotable advance in prices; $1,18@1,22 for fair to prime red; sale one car to go to Philadelphia at $1,25, free on board. PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 15, 1870 }

The metal market has been fairly active this week, unusually so for this season of the year: and while there is no quotable change in prices, the feeling is better. The stocks of raw iron, both here and at furnaces, tributary to this market, are by no means as large as generally estimated, though, nevertheless, up to the present requirements of the trade, and the impression is gaining strength that the bottom has been touched, and that in no event scarcely are raw irons are likely to go any lower. Following is the report of sales

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with three feet eight inches in the channel by the Monongahela bridge marks.

The Mary Davage, from St. Louis, is the only arrival we have to report. No other boats due except the packets.

The Granite State departed for Portsmouth with a moderate trip. Pilots—Morris and Abrams.

The Belle, Capt. Haney, is the independent packet for Brownsville and Geneva to-day, leaving at 5 P. M. The Belle pays particular attention to way business.

The new steamer Carrie Converse, Capt. G. W. Rea, is announced to depart for New Orleans to-day.

—The following is from the Natchez Democrat of Friday: The race between the Lee and the Natchez, continues to be the general topic. The friends of the Natchez, although acknowledging a beat, are still confident that she can beat the Lee's time to Vicksburg or Natchez, and, with a fair stage of water, to St. Louis. When the Lee reached Natchez, Captain Cannon cried out to the wharfmaster, "Take down those horns," and they were promptly lowered, much to the disappointment of the friends and supporters of the Natchez. A correspondent on board the Natchez says: "The Lee did take the Princess' horns, but was afraid to land and get them, and they were sent to her through the dignified agency of a coal-heaver on board a coal flat, which had been shoved out in the river to meet her.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette: A good deal of talk is being indulged in just now of building another bridge over the Ohio to connect Jeffersonville with Louisville. It is to be a tubular iron bridge, and is to be built jointly by the Ohio & Mississippi, Baltimore & Ohio and New York & Erie Railways and the Jeffersonville Ferry Company. It is to be constructed with a draw for the passage of boats. The cost of the structure will, it is stated, be $1,000,000. New Albany, at the foot of the falls, is equally anxious for a bridge at Sand Island.

—During a severe storm on Wednesday of last week, the long two story frame building in Knox & Son's boat yard, Harmar, was blown down and rendered entirely useless. Several persons were in the building at the time. One man was badly injured and Capt. W. Knox was thrown down and his leg severely hurt, making a very narrow escape. The loss to the firm is about $1,200.

—A late Cincinnati paper says: Capt. John Kouns, who passed through this city a few days ago, has secured Captain Newton's new boat, Tidal Wave, now being completed at Pittsburgh, to take the place of the Selma in Red River for the summer and fall trade. The Tidal Wave will be completed in about ten days.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: It is suggested that the fact is not very well known that the R. E. Lee's preparation to run fast on her way to this port included the greasing of her hull at New Orleans. That this was done we think will not be disputed.

—In the storm at La Grange, the Minneapolis was severely handled by the gale. She lost both her chimneys over board and was blown upon the rocks just above the landing, where she lay until pulled off by the Red Wing.

—The Belle Lee will, on her second trip after coming out in September, make a fast run to Natchez, and will beat the time of the R. E. Lee. Frank Hicks says so, and Nat Green says Frank is entirely reliable.

—The Jeffersonville & Louisville ferry boat, Jessie Bowman, was sold to the Crescent Ferry Co., of New Orleans on Wednesday, for $16,000.

—The Kate Putnam was expected to arrive at Cincinnati on Thursday, en-route from Pittsburgh to St Louis.

—The Collier arrived at Cincinnati on Wednesday and was advertised to leave on Thursday for St Louis.

—The towboat Baltic, with five barges of iron ore, left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The Nick Wall arrived at Shreveport from St. Louis last Sunday.

—The Lorena arrived at New Orleans on Wednesday.

No. 2. Ordinary letter size, 3 1-16 by 5⅛ inches—three qualities.
No. 3. Full letter size, 3⅜ by 5⅝ inches—three qualities.
No. 4. Full letter size, (for circulars,) ungummed on flap, 3⅜ by 5⅝ inches—one quality.
No. 5. Extra letter size, 3⅝ by 6⅜ inches—three qualities.

STAMPED NEWSPAPER WRAPPERS.

Six and a five-eighths by 9⅛ inches (round cut,)—one quality.

EMBOSSING, WATER MARKS, PRINTING, RULING, PAPER, STYLE OF MANUFACTURE.

All of the above Envelopes and Wrappers must be embossed with postage stamps, of such denominations, styles and colors, must have such watermarks or other devices to prevent imitation, and bear such printing and ruling as the Postmaster General may direct. The envelopes must be made in the most thorough manner, equal in every respect to the samples furnished to bidders by the Department. The paper must be of approved quality, specially manufactured for the purpose.

Whenever envelopes are ordered of the styles known as "Black-lined" or "Self-ruled," (lines printed inside or ruled on the face) the same shall be furnished without additional cost, the contractor to pay all charges for royalty in the use of patented inventions for said lined or ruled envelopes.

DIES.

The dies for embossing the postage stamps on the envelopes and wrappers are to be executed to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, in the best style, and they are to be provided, renewed, and kept in order at the expense of the contractor. The Department reserves the right of requiring new dies for any stamps or denominations of stamps not now used, and any changes of dies or colors shall be made without extra charge.

Before closing a contract the successful bidder may be required to prepare and submit new dies for the approval of the Department. The use of the present dies may or may not be continued.

The dies shall be safely and securely kept by the contractor, and should the use of any of them be temporarily or permanently discontinued, they shall be promptly turned over to the Department, or its agent, as the Postmaster General may direct.

GUM.

The envelopes must be thoroughly and perfectly gummed, the gumming on the flap of each (except for circulars) to be put on by hand not less than half an inch the entire length; the wrappers to be also hand-gummed not less than three-fourths of an inch in width across the end.

SECURITY FROM FIRE AND THEFT.

Bidders are notified that the Department will require, as a condition of the contract, that the envelopes and wrappers shall be manufactured and stored in such a manner as to insure security against loss by fire or theft.

The manufactory must at all times be subject to the inspection of an agent of the Department, who will require the stipulations of the contract to be faithfully observed.

PACKING.

All envelopes and wrappers must be banded in parcels of twenty-five, and packed in strong pasteboard or straw boxes, securely bound on all the edges and corners with cotton or linen cloth glued on, each to contain not less than two hundred and fifty of the note and letter sizes, and one hundred each of the official or extra official size, separately. The newspaper wrappers to be packed in boxes, to contain not less than two hundred and fifty each. The boxes are to be wrapped and securely fastened in strong manilla paper, and sealed, so as to safely bear transportation by mail for delivery to postmasters. When two thousand or more envelopes are required to fill the order of a postmaster, the straw or pasteboard boxes containing the same must be packed in strong wooden cases, well strapped with hoop-iron, and addressed; but when less than two thousand are required, proper labels of direction, to be furnished by an agent of the Department, must be placed upon each package by the contractor. Wooden cases, containing envelopes or wrappers, to be transported by water routes, must be provided with suitable water-proofing. The whole to be done under the inspection and direction of an agent of the Department.

DELIVERY.

The envelopes and wrappers must be furnished and delivered with all reasonable dispatch, complete in all respects ready for use, and in such quantities as may be required to fill the daily orders of postmasters; the deliveries to be made either at the Postoffice Department, Washington, D. C., or at the office of an agent duly authorized to inspect and receive the same; the place of delivery to be at the option of the Postmaster General, and the cost of delivering, as well as all expense of storing, packing, addressing, labeling and water-proofing to be paid by the contractor.

SAMPLES.

Specimens of the envelopes and wrappers for which proposals are invited, showing the different qualities and colors of paper required, the cuts, and style of gumming, with blank forms of bids, may be had on application to the Third Assistant Postmaster General.

This advertisement and a specimen of the sample envelopes and wrapper furnished by the Department must be attached to and made part of each bid.

GUARANTEE.

No proposal will be considered unless offered by a manufacturer of envelopes, and accompanied by a satisfactory guarantee signed by at least two responsible parties.

AWARD—AGREEMENT—BONDS.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder for all the envelopes and wrappers, the prices to be calculated on the basis of the number used of the several grades during the last fiscal year, which was as follows:

Note size	1,468,250
Letter size, first quality	60,467,500
Letter size, second quality	8,956,750
Letter size, second quality (ungummed)	3,618,000
Extra letter size, first quality	5,815,750
Extra letter size, second quality (ungummed)	454,000
Official size	569,900
Extra official size	3,100
Newspaper wrappers	4,936,250
Total	86,289,500

Within ten days after the contract has been awarded the successful bidder shall enter into an agreement in writing with the Postmaster General to faithfully observe and keep the terms, conditions, and requirements set forth in this advertisement, according to their true intent and meaning, and shall make, execute, and deliver, subject to the approval and acceptance of the Postmaster General, bonds with good and sufficient sureties in the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) as a forfeiture for the faithful performance of said agreement or contract according to the provisions and subject to the liabilities of the seventeenth section of an act of Congress entitled "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have been usually included in the general appropriation bills, without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the Departments and offices of the Government, and for other purposes." (United States Statutes at Large, vol. 5, page 256,) approved August 26, 1842; which act provides that in case the contractor shall fail to comply with the terms of his contract, "he and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture specified in such contract as liquidated damages, to be sued for in the name of the United States, in any court having jurisdiction thereof."

RESERVATIONS.

The Postmaster General reserves to himself the following rights:

1. To reject any and all bids, if, in his judgment, the interests of the Government require it.

2. To annul the contract whenever the same or any part thereof is offered for sale for the purpose of speculation; and under no circumstances will a transfer of the contract be allowed or sanctioned to any party who shall be, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, less able to fulfill the conditions thereof than the original contractor.

3. To annul the contract, if, in his judgment, there shall be a failure to perform faithfully any of its stipulations, or in case of a willful attempt to impose upon the Department Envelopes or Wrappers inferior to sample.

4. If the contractor to whom the first award may be made should fail to enter into agreement and give satisfactory bonds, as herein provided, then the award may be annulled and the contract let to the next lowest responsible bidder, and so on until the required agreement and bonds are executed; and such next lowest bidder shall be required to fulfill every stipulation embraced herein as if he were the original party to whom the contract was awarded.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

HOME NEWS.

Persons leaving the city for the summer, and wishing to have the GAZETTE sent to them, will please send their addresses to the office. Price by mail, 75 cents per month.

Mayor Callow yesterday committed "Mag" Stinefelt to jail for thirty days for vagrancy.

Sent Up.—James Little came to the Mayor's office yesterday and asked the Mayor to make some provision for him. His Honor very kindly sent him to Claremont for thirty days.

Rescuing a Prisoner.—John Little and George Robinson, who attempted to rescue a prisoner from officer Chambers a few days since, were arrested yesterday and fined $10 and costs each.

The Precipice.—Mayor Brush has placed an officer on Bluff street, who will be on duty from noon until midnight every day to prevent persons from falling over the hill. The city had better place a fence there.

Assault and Battery.—John Davis made information before Justice Heisel, yesterday, charging August Summer with assault and battery. He alleges that the accused knocked him down. A warrant was issued for August.

"My Desire."—We have on our table, from the publisher, Charlotte Blume, 43 Fifth avenue, a piece of music with the above caption, by J. William Pope and dedicated to J. G. Davis, Esq. The sentiment is rather apropos in these days of female suffragists.

The Home Shuttle Sewing Machine is warranted for five years. Price—For table-machine, top of black walnut, with drawer, $37; do. No. 3 machine, with cover, $42; do No. 4 Machine, cabinet case, $75. Salesroom No. 70 Smithfield street. Agents wanted.

During a quarrel between Joseph William Grubbs and John McDonald, yesterday, the latter won the day by letting a chair fall heavily upon the former's head. The contest, in a legal way, has been renewed at Alderman McMaster's office, and a warrant has been issued for John's arrest.

Sun Struck.—Yesterday afternoon George Hartz, a little boy about five years of age, residing in Lawrenceville, was sun struck while playing in the street. Medical aid was quickly summoned and the little sufferer last evening had improved so much that it was thought he would recover.

Red Men.—The annual meeting of the Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men will be held in this city on Tuesday next. The meeting will be held at Pontiac Wigwam, Fifth avenue, at eight o'clock. In the afternoon there will be a grand parade through the principal streets of this city.

Postponed.—The hearing in the case of the parties charged with cruelty to animals, which should have taken place yesterday morning, was postponed until next Friday, on account of the sudden illness of the accused. Particulars of the horrible case were published in yesterday's GAZETTE.

Parties who go out to the country to-day should, if any are smokers, first secure some of those superb club segars, new brand, to be obtained only at Megraw's, No. 45 Ninth street. Tobacco of all kinds, chewing or smoking, together with pipes and meerschaums, all prices and grades, may be had also at 45 Ninth street.

Aquatic.—There will be a race this evening on the Allegheny river from the Mechanic street to the Suspension Bridge and return, between the four and six oared boat crews of the John W. Pittock Boat Club, the crew losing to pay for a supper for the club. The race will take place at half past seven o'clock.

A Vagrant.—Nicholas Bick made information before Justice Heisel, yesterday, charging his step son, Conrad Fluckenstein, with vagrancy. Conrad is about nineteen years of age, and, according to the statement of Bick, is a worthless cuss, too lazy to work and too poor to live honestly without it. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

The European complications will doubtless have an effect on commerce and considerably impede imports to this country. In the matter of queensware, that will make not the slightest difference, as our people can secure that from the Keystone Pottery, which defies competition of any foreign manufacturer. Warehouse 363 Liberty street.

Peter Albeich went to the saloon of August Geip yesterday to collect a bill. He was refused, and severely beaten. He returned soon after reinforced by his wife and essayed to perform his duties as collector. Whipped again. He then called in the aid of Alderman McMasters, who has issued a warrant for the arrest of the pugnacious debtor.

What is the Use.—The rumors of European war caused great excitement on Fifth avenue yesterday afternoon, and drew large crowds around the bulletin boards. At the Commercial bulletin quite a gathering seemed to be excited over the telegrams: but when we neared we discovered that about one-half of it was absorbed in the proclamations from the windows of the Real Estate Register.

Broken Up.—The family of Wm. Purcell, who was arrested a few days since for abusing his wife, was broken up yesterday. William who had been committed to jail was released, and his wife having been arrested for drunkenness was committed to jail for ten days, and their children, ten bright little girls were sent to the city farm, where they will doubtless be better cared for than they would have been by their parents.

Chicken Thieves.—Wm. Wagner, a boy of fourteen years of age, and two others about the same age, visited a hen-roost on the premises of Wm. Hann, Thursday night, and according to the statement of Mr. Hann, stole a number of chickens. An information was made before Justice Heisel and warrants were issued for the arrest of the young rascals. Wagner was arrested and the officers are in search of the others.

Railroad Excursion.—We have received a small phamplet from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, from which we learn that they have arranged routes for sixty-seven different excursions for summer tourists, all at rates below the regular fare. These routes include Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, the Lakes, New York, and—by a connection with the Grand Trunk Railroad Company—Canada and New England.

Cramps, Cramps.—We are informed by an esteemed citizen who has been much annoyed with nocturnal cramps, having often been obliged, by sudden cramps, to jump hurriedly from his bed, that he has found an infallible and ever ready remedy, which consists simply in raising the toes of the cramped limb upwards, projecting the heel as far out as possible and making the toes point as much as possible to the head. Our informant suggests the probability that this simple expedient if known and practiced by bathers would prove as efficacious in the water as in the chamber, and would prevent the frequent loss of life by drowning. Let the press pass this along.

Death of Mr. Smith.

Mr. R. J. Smith, who met with such a serious accident on the Inclined Plane Railway last week, died at his residence 54 Chatham street yesterday morning, at half past seven o'clock. Mr. Smith was an excellent citizen, a true patriot, and a most upright christian man, and his death is deeply lamented by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He leaves behind him an estimable wife, and quite a large family of children, who are receiving the unfeigned sympathies of the community. The funeral will take place this afternoon at three o'clock.

Watch Presentation.

An exceedingly pleasant affair transpired at the Merchant's Hotel last evening. A number of the employes of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, as an evidence of their esteem and appreciation of the Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Thomas M. King, presented him with an elegant and costly gold watch and chain. A. G. Cochran, Esq., on behalf of the donors, presented the watch, which was received by John H. Kerr, Esq., for Mr. King. The guests were then regaled with a sumptuous repast, which was discussed with a relish highly complimentary to the cooks at the Merchant's.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

We understand that between thirty and forty thousand dollars was paid on life policies by the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., last month at their agency in this city. The benefits of life insurance are being more appreciated every day, and to those who are thinking of effecting an insurance on their lives, we heartily recommend the Mutual Benefit as one of the oldest, most substantial and economical institutions in the country. By reeferring to the President's report for last year it will be seen that the usual dividend of 50 per cent. is paid this year, and two dividends ordered to be paid in 1871. This makes six dividends of return premiums paid within four years by this Company—two more than expected. As long as the Mutual Benefit continues to disappoint its policy holders so agreeably, there will be no cause for complaint. Messrs. Lusk and Brown (successors to S. M. Loveridge) are the General Agents for this State. Office corner Wood street and Fourth avenue.

THE PITTSBURGH BARGE CLUB.

Arrival of the "Alice"—Excursion to Belvidere—Complimentary Banquet to Alexander Nimick, Esq.—Feasting, Speeches and Mirth—A Return by Moonlight.

The members of this energetic boat club have been looking forward with much pleasure, for some time past, to the arrival of their new barge, recently presented by Alexander Nimick, Esq., and named "Alice," for upon its reception they expected to have a grand excursion to Belvidere, on the Allegheny river. So last night all expectations were realized. The new eight oared boat arrived a day or two ago from Philadelphia, manufactured by Luffbery of that city. She is a perfect model of a boat, being 52 feet long and 4 feet wide, made of Spanish cedar, nicely carpeted with crimson velvet, and heavily plated with silver on the bow, and on this the name is prettily engraved; everything blends throughout in a pleasing style, and certainly takes the palm off everything in this community in the boat line both for beauty and size. The boat was named after Mrs. Alice P—— of Allegheny, who presented the Club with a beautiful stand of colors consisting of two pretty silk flags. Mr. Nimick, as we remarked before, made this munificent donation to the Barge Club, and it will likely cost in all eight hundred dollars—certainly a noble gift.

Last evening a programme was laid out for an excursion trip to Belvidere, where they would tender their worthy President a complimentary banquet. So about six o'clock the "Alice" was launched for the first time and manned with an excellent crew, all uniformed in a very pretty dress, with Messrs. Alex. Nimick and Joseph Brown as their guests, Mr. N. looking as young and jovial as in the good old days of the "Undine." The "Naid" and "Whisper" accompanied the barge, and in a short time all were wending their ways up the placid Allegheny. The evening was quite warm, but the lively spirit of the crews lessened to a great extent the apparent hardship, and about eight o'clock they came in sight of the much loved Belvidere, where the host of the hotel was awaiting them, and they were soon ushered into the banquet room, where an enticing feast had been prepared.

The boys were somewhat tired and hungry after their "little pull," and of course it did not take much persuasion to make them commence the destruction of substantial and delicacy, which was entered upon in right good earnest, and with the merry laugh and joyous conversation, it was really an attractive scene. The inner man being pretty well cared for by this time, numerous speeches were made by several gentlemen present; these speaking the great success of the Barge Club, considering the short time it had been in existence, and of the great good clubs of this kind were productive of in every point of view.

Thus the time was whiled away until late at night, when the rising of the moon was announced, which was to be the sign of departure, and the boys, although fully rested and ready to leave, regretted the time had passed so soon, but were glad to know the return would be made by moonlight. Lively songs of various kinds marked the way down, and when the boat house was reached at the Suspension bridge, all pronounced the excursion a grand success. We return our thanks to Mr. Will Park for a kindness extended us, and have no doubt but that the members of the club will always look back with much pleasure to the excursion held upon the arrival of their pet—the Alice.

IN THE FIELD.

Base Ball Match—Allegheny vs. Osceola—A Large Attendance and an Excellent Game—Matches to Come Off.

One of the most interesting base ball matches of the season came off yesterday at Union Park, Allegheny, between the Allegheny and Osceola clubs, the latter being the challenging party. The game was appointed for last Tuesday, but owing to the rain it had to be postponed. The Allegheny is the champion club of the county, and probably the best in Western Pennsylvania. They have played a number of matches thus far in the season, with uniform success, never having been beaten and always having concluded with a complimentary score. The Osceola ranks as one of the best if not the best junior club hereabouts, and has a very flattering record. The contest between the two, therefore, was looked upon with great interest in base ball circles, and expectations of a sharp match were entertained.

About six hundred spectators, some of whom were ladies, assembled at Union Park to witness the game. The preliminaries were all arranged, and at four o'clock the Allegheny, having lost the toss, were sent to the bat. Mr. R. G. Sutton, of the Monitor Club, Indiana, Pa., was selected as Umpire, and performed his delicate duty in a manner to render the contest much more interesting and close, and with an impartiality which won the praise alike of spectators and players.

The first two innings were beautifully played, neither club scoring a run. After that the fortune varied, but the Allegheny kept the lead to the end. The fielding of both clubs was very good, but one or two "muffs" occurring during the entire play. The most remarkable feature was the batting, which has never been excelled in any game played in the Park. In the second inning, Rinehart of the Allegheny sent a ball whizzing through the air, and over the fence into the avenue beyond, a feat that was greeted with loud applause. A number of difficult fly catches were made. Fox, of the Osceola, especially distinguishing himself in this direction. Rinehart also took one, running backwards—probably the best of the game. All of the players, however, did well and clearly evidenced that the noble sport can be spirited and exciting without the aid of professionals who so often bring it into disgrace. The following is the score:

FEMALE REGATTA.

The principal topic of conversation in sporting circles for a few days past has been the female regatta, which will take place at half past two o'clock this afternoon on the Upper Monongahela couse, under the direction of the Nonpareil Boat Club, which also holds a picnic at Glenwood grove, and as one of the features of their entertainment offer a prize to the best oarswoman in a single scull race of one mile. That the affair will be a decided success there can be no doubt, as three young ladies entered the list as competitors shortly after the prize was offered and have been in constant practice ever since.

THE CONTESTANTS.

The first to enter the list was Miss Lottie McAlice, a buxom young lass of sixteen summers, with rosy cheeks, (slightly browned from exposure,) weighing about one hundred and eight pounds. She resides with her brother-in-law and sister in Pipetown, Sixth ward. She is as much at home on the water as in the parlor or kitchen, having been accustomed to row a skiff since she was but a small child. She is now a member of the "Max Moorhead" Boat Club, has been practicing in a boat belonging to the club for some weeks, and has become quite an expert in the use of the "spruces."

MISS MAGGIE LEW,

A resident of Brownstown, next signified her intention to compete for the prize, and through the courtesy of the members of the Chambers Boat Club, has been permitted to use their boat house and one of their boats, in which she has been practicing for the past two weeks steadily. She is about sixteen years of age, good looking, if not handsome, and although not so plump as her rival is of a more muscular build, and settles the scales at one hundred pounds.

MISS MARY WHALEN,

The third contestant, is a pretty girl, on the shady side of nineteen, having in that respect an advantage over her rivals of a few years. She resides with her brother-in-law, John Campbell, on the South Side, and like Miss McAlice, has been in a manner raised upon the water. She has been training under the supervision of the Beck Boat Club, in one of their boats, and has become quite proficient in the management of the frail bark.

THE COURSE.

It will, as stated, take place over the upper Monongahela course, or a part of it, commencing at a point opposite Glenwood Grove and extending down the river half a mile to a stake boat and return. The river is strait at this point, and the entire race can be witnessed from any favorable point along the course.

SPECIAL TRAINS, ETC.

One special train will leave the Connellsville Depot at 1:30 P. M., and another at 3:15 P. M., returning immediately after the boat race. The contestants are expected to be on hand with their boats at the time the train is due—about two o'clock—when the Judges and Referee are to be selected, and final arrangements made.

THE RACE.

It would be almost as difficult to tell what has not been said of the affair as what has been. There is as a matter of course diversity of opinion upon it, but all agree in predicting a large crowd, a fair race and that the best "man—woman we should say—will win." It is quite evident that there is no put up job in the matter. Nothing but unfavorable weather or some other providential interference will prevent the race from taking place and the contestants all express themselves as confident of success. Considerable money we learn has already been staked on the result, Miss McAlice being the favorite on this side of the river.

ABROAD.

This novel regatta is creating some interest abroad, as well as here. The Eastern papers have all commented upon it, and as an evidence of the interest, we give the following received by Messrs. Albee & Co., photographers, of this city, a few days since:

"GENTS—Please send us photographs of the ladies that take part in the regatta that comes off in Pittsburgh on tne 16th inst., as well as photographs of the scenery where it is to take place, or what would be better still, a photograph of the scene when the regatta takes place, taken instantaneously. Send your pictures at once so that we can publish them as news immediately after it takes place."

In compliance with the above Messrs. Albee & Co., have decided to take a photograph of the race and scenery at the instant of starting from the south bank of the river.

THE CROPS.

The Prospects in Western Pennsylvania.

The Brookville Jeffersonian says:

THE HARVEST.—During the past three weeks it has been our fortune to pass through more than half a dozen of the counties of Western Pennsylvania, and during that time our facilities for acquiring information with regard to the harvest being gathered was exceedingly good, and from all that we have learned, it is our opinion that it is rarely that our country has been so generally blessed with a bountiful crop of all those products that go to fill up the great granary from which we draw all the supplies that sustain animal life.

In many places the wheat is already harvested, and the farmer has secured, generally, more than an average crop, the berry being exceedingly plump, and the ears well filled. If our farmers depend upon home consumption to give them a market, the anticipated rise in the price of the "staff of life" will not come very soon. The broad fields covered with the thickly shocked grain is certainly good cheer to the farmer as well as the consumer, to whom the recollection of $16 and $18 a barrel for flour is yet very vivid. The hay crop is most abundant in all sections; in the southern counties the greater portion being already safely cured and housed. In some localities the supply promises to be so abundant that the finest fields of clover are being plowed down or pastured, a course deemed the most profitable by many sagacious farmers.

On the whole, the prospect is most encouraging. On every hand substantial improvements are visible, and that squalor, accompanying poverty, is scarcely ever met with, every person disposed to provide home comforts finding plenty of suitable remunerative employment. Indeed the whole Commonwealth is "blossoming as the rose," a gracious Providence blessing the labor of her millions of hard fisted workingmen.

Those Horrible Chignons.

Girls will be delighted with this item from a medical journal: "Now that warm weather is upon us, copious perspiration will result from much bodily activity, and if the chignon be worn at such times it will smell badly. Besides those organs of the brain covered by the thick, heavy pad will become unduly heated, excited, and perverted, by this most unphysiologial and unhealthy foreign fashion. Headaches will follow; and even aberrations of mind will be traced to loading down the head with such artificial abominations as these. What are they but generators of brain fever? Do they not draw the blood to those parts, and produce abnormal action? Certainly they do; and the amative propensity, with its adjacent organs, are the ones injuriously affected. If ladies prefer to wear their hair in curls, braids, or in nets, of course it is their privilege to do so; but to pile on those ridiculous "waterfalls," vulgarly so-called, indicates something worse than foolish vanity. If modest and virtuous women realized the significance of the present head-gear, they would drop it for very shame. As it is, many sensible women, disgusted with the "swell-head" style, are cutting off their hair a la Anna Dickinson, Laura Halloway, Florence Nightingale, Gail Hamilton, &c.

A Strange Incident.

The Raftsman's Journal says: Some time last fall, Miss Cora E. Hays, aged seven years, daughter of S. J. Hays, of Curwensville, Clearfield county, swallowed a needle of one and one-half inches in length. The little girl experienced no unpleasant results at the time from swallowing the needle. Several months ago however, she began to complain of having a pain in her stomach, and more recently of pain in the region of the bowels and side. Thus matters stood until Thursday last, July 7th, when the needle was taken from her hip, near the lower extremity of the ileum, by Mr. Hayes and his family physician. This is certainly a very singular and rare incident, and worthy of note. Parents should exercise much precaution to prevent their children from swallowing needles and pins, lest death result from such occurrence.

Health Rules.

One of the most important rules of health is that relating to clothing. The wearer should always be arrayed in garments suitable to the season, and which while keeping the body cool and comfortable, will not be an unnecessary clog upon its movements. Garments may have the first quality and yet by fitting badly be just the reverse of what they ought to be as regards the second consideration. Gentlemen in this vicinity can easily avoid any difficulty in the case by purchasing their goods at Hespendeide's, No. 50 Sixth street. Here they will always find goods in season, and when they are made always manufactured to fit. Try Hespenheide for your next suit.

Geo. A. Martin, Esq., Commercial Editor of the Buffalo Express, says: "If Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy possessed no other virtue, its worth would be beyond price as an effective antidote for the horrors of a 'cold in the head.' Two or three applications have always, in my case, removed the disagreeable symptoms. Sold by druggists or send Sixty Cents to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. THE WAR NEWS.

How it was Received in the City—The Probabilities and Possibilities Discussed in the Beer Saloons and Other Places.

The exciting intelligence that France had declared war against Prussia, and that already troops were in motion on both sides of the Rhine, received yesterday from Paris, produced a profound excitement in this city among all classes of people. The causes leading to the contest about to be inaugurated were discussed everywhere, and as a general thing Napoleon had few to argue that he was right in precipitating war upon Prussia. Merchants blessed with a large stock of foreign goods seemed in no wise worried, for they shrewdly calculated how much such goods would go up in prices ere many days, and flour and grain dealers who have a stock on hand also rejoiced over the war from a pecuniary stand point. Last night the excitement reached a high pitch among our German fellow citizens and they were every where seen on the streets congregated in knots anxiously and earnestly discussing the war probabilities. The beer saloons were crowded to their utmost capacities, and the health of King William of Prussia, of Bismarck and the success of Northern Germany was drank so often and so enthusiastically as to leave no doubt as to where stand the Germans in their sympathies. The more intelligent look on the war as a very unfortunate proceeding, calculated to bring about no good whatever, but they hold that Prussia could do naught else but resent the arrogance of the French Emperor. They believe that Prussia is a fair match for France and confidently expect Napoleon to be driven and vanquished in the first important meeting of the forces. However they do not under estimate the military power of the French and look for a long and tedious war which may spread all over Europe before the end of next August.

Never since the war times in our own country have we observed so much excitement or heard so much military talk as on yesterday and last night, and the struggle between France and Prussia will keep our people excited and feverish for news till peace is again declared.

HALL'S POTATO DIGGER.

A New and Really Valuable Farm Implement—Its Trial and Success.

On Thursday last, seated behind one of Andy Jackman's best "turn-outs," in company with one of the inventors, John Hall, jr., H. B. Long, Esq., of agricultural notoriety, and Mr. Martin Zeigler, of Park & Dean, we made a trip to "McKee's Rocks," by a pleasant drive on the South Side. We had a fine view of the cities and surroundings, passing many elegant residences, among which are those of B. C. Sawyer, Esq., Mr. Nimick, our jovial, good friend John McKee, Esq., and others. The object of the trip was to witness the trial of Mr. Hall's patent "Potato Digger." This took place on the fine fruit and extensive garden farm of James Sheridan and son, at McKee's Rocks, one of the best cultivated in the county. After noting the fine promise of tomatoes and other of the night shades and gourd family the "digger" was put to test, it being in the midst of early potato harvest. Its working was witnessed by quite a number of farmers and gardeners, and was highly satisfactory. Indeed, it was looked on with astonishment and delight, and more than met the expectations of its friends. It was operated by one man and two horses, with as much facility as a common plow: did not choke or clog, and took a row at a time, and so perfectly did it throw out and separate the potatoes, leaving them on the top of the earth, that the most careful examination could not find a single one covered or undug. An idea of its capacity can be formed from a record of time made, the horses moving at a slow, steady step. One row, four hundred feet, in one minute and a half, the yield of potatoes when picked being a little over three bushels, or at the rate of ninety bushels per hour. A man digging by hand required three hours to dig the rows adjoining, yet he worked steady. The team did not tire, or show the fatigue of ordinary plowing. The inventor is our citizen and a leading mechanic, John Hall, Jr., of the family of Halls, whose plows are well and favorably known in all parts of the civilized world. He has spent years in inventing and perfecting this implement and now places it before the community in a form so simple that any farmer or gardener can use it who can handle a plow. The price, too, ($16) sixteen dollars, places it within the reach of all, and every man who raises an acre of potatoes would save money and labor by having one. It operates either in hills or drills, and is equally well calculated to dig turnips, carrots, beets or any other root crops, and leave the ground level and well pulverized. We look upon this invention as the most important one since the introduction of the iron mould board plow, and it cannot fail to have an encouraging effect in stimulating the production of the potatoe, the most important of all esculents. The State Board of Michigan at one time offered five hundred dollars premium for a successful potatoe digger. The one offered cost four hundred and fifty dollars and required two men and four horses to draw it, and it was not as practical a machine or did its work so well as the one of which we write. The Digger is for sale and can be seen at Hare & Son's, 129 Liberty street, Pittsburgh.

The Weekly Gazette.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE is the largest, cheapes and best family newspaper published in Pennsylvania. Carefully edited agricultural columns, prove a valuable feature to the farmer, while the Literary, Religious, Political, Telegraph and General News departments are kept up to the fullest requirements of a live, progressive, enterprising and successful family newspaper. Two editions are made, one on Wednesday and one on Saturday, in order to suit the country mails, and subscribers should designate which day's publication they desire. A very limited number of unobjectionable advertisements are published in the WEEKLY GAZETTE, as the space is too valuable to be used for other than news purposes.

The Prettiest Woman in New York. Miss K——, well known in our fashionable society for her distingue appearance and beautiful complexion, was once a sallow, rough-skinned girl, chagrined at her red, freckled face. She pitched into Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and is now as pretty in complexion as she is charming in manners. This article overcomes freckles, tan, sallowness, moth-patches, ring-marks, etc., and makes one look ten years younger than they are. Magnolia Balm for a transparent complexion, and Lyon's Kathairon to make the hair plentiful, luxuriant, soft and delicate, have no rivals. The Kathairon prevents the hair from turning gray, eradicates dandruff, and is the best and cheapest dressing in the world. T:TH:S.

The heat of yesterday was almost unendurable, and all who could, sought the cooling breezes outside the city. Many of those who could not follow this plan did what was the next best method—dropped in at Youngson & Co.'s, corner of Smithfield street nad Diamond ally, and regaled and refreshed themselves with a delicious dish of ice cream. The same plan can be pursued with profit to-day.

Now that war has been declared and the prospects are too sadly brilliant for a general European skirmish, many persons will be leaving our shores for the scene of conflict, and all who go from Pittsburgh should first secure one of those stout and beautiful travelling trunks from Liebier's, No. 104 Wood street. With tnese their baggage will be safe, and the trip will be thereby rendered much more agreable.

On of the most difficult accomodations to secure in a boarding house is a well ventilated, cheerful, airy and cool bedroom, a consideration which cannot be overlooked this warm weather. Suffering humanity who have been almost roasted alive in other quarters should try the Girard House, Allegheny. Captain Lightcap has made this a speciality in his hotel, and boarders will find it just the place for them.

How a French Novel Reached Its Edition.

What's literary fame? The Monegasques (don't you know what a Monegasque is? Well, it is an inhabitant of Monaco) all firmly believe that Marmier, the newly elected Academican, is an umbrella merchant. There was once in Paris a poor devil, who, on the point of starvation, proved himself a man of resources. He proposed to a noted publisher to dispose of all the books in stock which no one could be induced to buy. His offer was accepted, and away he went to Nice, where he opened a little shop, and his first case of books. He made a face; the case contained the entire first edition of a novel entitled "Major Fridolin," by X. Marmier. Ah, ciel! At that time the races were held at Longchamps, where a sportsman named Major Fridolin had successfully run his horse against several noted English trotters. All France was gloriously excited, of course, apent the victory over perfidious Albion. "I am saved!" thought the man of resource, and instantly he placarded the walls of Nice with a glowing poster announcing that "Major Fridolin, not only a wonderful sportsman, but one of the most distinguished writers of the age, was about to publish a terrible, pathetic, enchanting and piquant romance worthy of Balzac himself." Then off he rushed to a printer's and had the title of the whole edition changed to "X. Marmier, Romance by Major Fridolin." Intellectual frenzy among the dwellers in Nice. No one could esteem himself a man of the world until he could say that he had read the delightful romance written by the celebrated Major. When the man of resource left Nice he had sold three-quarters of the edition. He journeyed to Monaco and tried the same ruse. But the Monegasques didn't like the book; nobody wanted to know the history of X. Marmier. Our friend developed a new idea—charming, ravishing. In Paris he had formerly manufactured varnished paper canes! Brilliant thought! "Again I am saved!" So the rest of the Major Fridolins were used in making splendid paper canes, through whose varnish he permitted to appear only the name of the firm X. Marmier. Then he posted, "Habitants de Monaco! the world-renowned manufacturer of umbrellas to the Parisian nobility has again distinguished himself by a new and brilliant invention, the paper cane. It is carried by all the most elegant men of Paris, and has even been presented at Court. Buy only those canes bearing the name of the justly celebrated inventor, X. Marmier!" Fashionable frenzy among the Monegasques. The edition was exhausted in two days and the ingenious maker telegraphed to the publisher "Send more Major Fridolins instantly!" "Astonishing!" murmured the publisher; "what a literary success!" He had not a leaf of Major Fridolin, but he hastened to reply: "I'll reprint." So he reprinted and sent the second edition to Monaco. The canes became popular throughout the surrounding country, and edition after edition was remorselessly taken to pieces. The poor devil left Monaco rich, the publisher almost dissolved his wits in wonder, and Marmier exulted over the immense success of his book. It is thus that Major Fridolin reached its seventh edition; to the paper canes its author owes his new title of Academician.

The Declaration of Independence.

The Philadelphia Ledger says:

A discussion has recently taken place in Boston in reference to the correct phraseology of the Declaration of Independence. The printed oration of Mr. William Everett, delivered in Boston on July 4th, 1870, gives "all men are born free and equal" as the leading principle of the famous Declaration, whereas that instrument reads, "all men are created equal." The orator, however, asserts that in his spoken oration he made use of the correct sentence. This mistake in the printed copy of the oration has caused an investigation into the history of the sentiment, from which it appears that the Virginia Bill of Rights, drawn up by George Mason and adopted on June 12th, 1776, contains the phrase "all men are by nature equally free and independent." In Jefferson's first draft of the Declaration the sentence read "all men are created equal and independent." The Declaration of Independence of the following July reads "all men are created equal."

The declaration of rights of the inhabitants of Pennsylvania, passed by a Convention, sitting from July 15th to September 28th, 1776, reads, "All men are born equally free and independent." The Bill of Rights of Massashusetts, drawn up by John Adams in 1799, reads, "all men are born free and equal," though the words as originally reported by the committee were, "all men are born equally free and independent." From these authorities it seems that George Mason's draft of the Virginia Bill of Rights was the common source from which all the subsequent expressions were obtained. The principle, however, can be traced to much earlier writers, including Locke and Sidney, and, according to Sir Robert Filmer to Cardinal Bellarmin, who lived between 1542 and 1621.

A Mad Dog in a Drawing Room—A Gentleman Painfully Bitten—A Desparate Struggle.

From the St. Louis Republican, July 11.

Mr. John J. Daley, of the firm of Daley & Boaz, booksellers and stationers, was severely and painfully bitten by a mad dog yesterday morning at his residence on Pine street, between Ewing and Garrison avenues. The rabid animal rushed into the house from the street, and by its wild demeanor caused a panic among the maid servants. It found its way into the drawing room, and Mr. Daley being informed of his whereabouts, he proceeded with a broom in his hand to drive it out. It unfortunately happened that the brute was in a place where the gentleman did not perceive it, and it suddenly jumped on to him, biting him on the leg. A terrific struggle then ensued between Mr. Daley and the dog. The drawing room table, glasses and ornaments were knocked into a heap, Mr. Daley invariably falling among them. In the melee, the mad dog seized a cat, which was in the room and bit it severely. Further disaster was prevented by the timely arrival of a policeman, who killed both the cat and the dog. Mr. Daley was found to have been badly bitten, and medical aid was immediately sent for. Dr. Boisliniere and another physician attended the wounded gentleman, and treated him with the utmost care. The lacerated portion of the leg was cut out and cauterized, and the patient is now doing as well as can be expected. The encounter with the dog was a most exciting and desperate struggle, and will never be forgotten by those who witnessed it.

The Chinese in California.

The Anti-Coolie Association of San Francisco has recently made a report to the Board of Health of that city on the condition of the Chinese quarter. It is stated that from 200 to 300 Chinese lodge at night in one house, that some houses have five hundred and others have one thousand lodgers. A three-story building on a lot fifty feet square, called the Globe Hotel, has 2,500 inmates. From the basement to the roof of the dwelling bunks about the size of a coffin are fitted up for lodgers. The ground is also scooped out into subterranean apartments, where gambling is going on night and day, and where other worse crimes are committed. It is also alleged that in these underground recesses subterranean courts, with judges and executioners, are held, and that the penalty of death is inflicted upon such of the Chinese as may reveal the secrets of the organization. This may be considered as rather doubtful. The offensive odor arising from these crowded, filthy and abominable quarters is described as sickening in the extreme, and the Board of Health is requested to examine into and purge the dwellings of the Chinese, so as to prevent the occurrence of Asiatic plagues which American physicians cannot control.

A PROPOSAL to buy and preserve the Gad's Hill house and grounds as a national memento to Dickens has been set on foot in English literary circles. It is suggested that the house shall be retained by the family of the deceased for a term of years, at the expiration of which, with their consent, the place will be held in trusteeship as a national memorial.

ADVICES from Constantinople state that the Sultan ordered the Grand Vizier to appoint a commission of three members to immediately visit France and England to study the system of the construction of houses in Paris and London, in order to adopt for the Turkish capital a "mode of building which will avoid for the future any recurrence of a conflagration."

—A difficulty occurred Thursday at Paducah between Capt. J. W. Trover, of steamer A. Baker, and Hugh Mortington, clerk of steamer Milbray, in which the latter received fatal injuries from a brick thrown by Capt. Trover. The boats are rival packets between Cairo and Paducah and the affray seems to have been the culmination of bitterness engendered by a struggle for the monopoly of the trade. Captain Trover was released on five hundred dollars bail.

BEAVER FALLS, PA.

Dedication of Methodist Church.

[Correspondence of Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, July 15, 1870.

The Methodist Church of Beaver Falls, whose organization we reported through the GAZETTE a little over a year ago, has just completed and ready for use a neat, substantial house of worship, of gothic architecture, 42x60 feet, which, (D. V.) will be dedicated to the service of Almighty God on next Sabbath, July 17, 1870.

Rev'ds. W. Collier, D. D., W. Reeves, D. D., G. G. Westfall, G. W. Burns, et. al. are expected to participate in the services. A general invitation is extended to pastors and people of the neighboring churches.

This is the third church edifice that has been erected in this town within a year, and had been built before, making in all four good churches for this four year old town. May each prove a bethel indeed.

Yours, &c., S. F. C.

THE following circular has been issued by the Superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad:

GEN'L SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,
OMAHA, NEB., July 7, 1870.

To prevent the necessity of replying specially to numerous enquiries regarding danger from Indians on the line of the Union Pacific road, I would state, that I am informed that from the opening of the road to July, 1869, and from that day to the present time, during which I have had charge, no passenger has been molested or any passenger car interfered with in a single instance. That those portions of the road where Indians occasionally cross, and indeed all stations through the Indian country, are well and thoroughly guarded by United States troops, infantry at stations, with cavalry scouting and co-operating therewith, all under command of Maj Gen. C. C. Augur.

The Directors and other officers of the road and their families are passing over the line without hesitation or fear. I have recently passed days upon and over the whole line, and can say with perfect truth that I felt as free from danger as if traveling in any part of the Union. My own family and lady friends have had the same experience and testify to the same feeling of perfect security. To their testimony might be added hundreds of others.

C. G. HAMMOND,
General Superintendent.

P. S.—Sensational newspaper items should be read with allowance.

Indian difficulties occurring in interior districts at great distances from the road, are frequently telegraphed from stations on the line of U. P. R. R., thereby giving false impressions of insecurity to passengers, when no cause for fear exists.
